Operator of Elevated Car In Crash Last Week Discharged

Edward Dana, President of Elevated, States Failure To Reduce Speed Found to Be Cause of Crash

The discharge of the operator of the trolley car which overturned at Tremont and Park sts., Newton, on Wednesday was announced yesterday by Edward Dana, president and general manager of the Boston Elevated Railway.

Dana declared that the failure of the motorman, Leon W. Hastings, 53, of Watertown, an employee of the company for 24 years, to reduce speed for the curve was responsible for the accident in which 45 persons were injured or shaken up when the car left the rails and tipped over.

Dana's statement follows:

"Test and inspection today of the outbound Watertown car which jumped track and overturned yesterday at Tremont and Park sts., Newton, showed that this car was in a safe operating condition with braking and other equipment functioning properly.

"The track was observed and found to be in safe condition.

"From our investigation we believe that the accident was due to failure of operator to comply with the safety rules and instructions of the railway relative to reduced speed when approaching and rounding this curve.

"The operator of the car in question has been dismissed."

The action was taken by President Dana after conferring yesterday with Newton police traffic officials who investigated the accident.

Sergeant Thomas J. Burke of the Newton police traffic bureau indicated today that the discharge of the operator from the company's employ did not end the case as far as the Newton police were concerned. He said the case is still under investigation.

Eleven persons were taken to hospitals after the accident, 20 were treated by physicians and the rest of the passengers, estimated at 45 in all, are believed to have been shaken up when the car left the rails, struck a telegraph pole and overturned.

To make certain that there shall be no recurrence of the accident, Boston Elevated officials yesterday designated the junction of Tremont and Park sts., Newton, a "stop street," requiring cars to come to a full stop on Tremont st. before entering Park st.

An orange band with a white stripe in the center was painted on a metal pole near the intersection, as a signal to motormen to bring the cars to a complete stop before rounding the curve in the tracks.

To Citizens of Newton:

A Citizens Committee was organized several months ago to be of assistance to Newton men entering the service. It is the object of this committee to do something for these men and to at least give them a warm and appreciative send-off when they are called upon to leave our City for their stations in various parts of the world.

Many of our representative citizens are working on this committee and they are now planning a Grand Military Ball for March 17th to help in the raising of funds. If our City as a whole will co-operate in this undertaking we will have the assurance that our boys will be made to feel the sincere good wishes of their own community when they are called upon to sacrifice for us far away from their own homes here in Newton.

I sincerely solicit your help and support of the Citizens Committee for Service to Newton Service Men.

Very sincerely yours,
PAUL M. GODDARD,
Mayor, City of Newton.

Boy, 10, Rescues Brother, 8, From River at Auburndale

Robert E. Thompson, Jr., 10 years old, of 452 Lexington st., Auburndale, rescued his brother, Donald, eight, from drowning after they crashed through thin ice as they set forth on a bicycle trip across the Charles River, Auburndale, late Friday afternoon.

Each of the brothers was riding his bicycle when they ventured on the ice, off Kingswood rd., Auburndale, bound for the Waltham shore. They had proceeded only 15 feet when the ice cracked under them and they plunged into the water with the bicycles.

Donald Goes Down

Robert managed to remain afloat, but Donald vanished under water for a moment. When he reappeared, Robert succeeded in seizing and dragging him towards shore. Their cries attracted neighbors and the police were notified, but when a cruising car arrived,

Newton Blood Plasma Is Used

Newton residents who have donated to the Red Cross Blood Bank in Boston will be most gratified to learn that a Navy Surgeon at Pearl Harbor was thrilled to see that some of the blood plasma which he was using was marked with the familiar stamp of the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital where he had trained. The plasma came from blood donated at the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital, where the Boston Chapter of the Red Cross operated its blood donor center before doubling and redoubled requirements compelled a removal to present large quarters at 691 Boylston st.

He said: "It looks like fine stuff. Besides restoring blood content and general bodily condition nearer to normal, its use makes the patients feel better and their burns seem to heal better. We didn't have enough material to follow the patients long enough, but all are in fine shape now."

A greater supply of plasma is now needed and more donors required. For information, and to make appointments, call Kenmore 9060, at 691 Boylston st., corner of Exeter st.

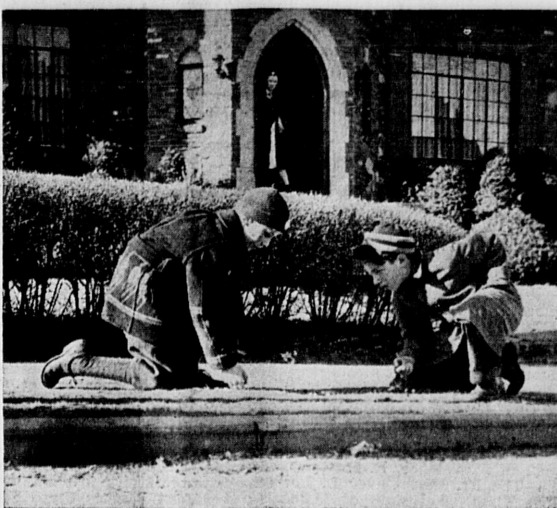

Reserve Officers Called To Duty

Six men who have been serving as temporary patrolmen in Newton since the beginning of the year will be replaced by men whose names are at the head of the list of those who passed the recent Civil Service examination for appointment to the force.

Chief Michael T. Hughes stated yesterday that he will appoint six men to the reserve force after he receives a certified list of men eligible for the appointments.

The reserve force now has only four members having been depleted by promotions to the regular force. Provision has been made in the mayor's budget recommendations for the employment of the entire reserve force, including the six to be appointed, on regular service for the rest of the year.

Judge Spalding Inducted As Associate Justice Feb. 27

John V. Spalding of 257 Dedham st., Newton Highlands, a Boston lawyer, was inducted last Friday as an associate justice of the Massachusetts Superior Court, succeeding the late Judge Joseph A. Sheehan.

During the induction ceremonies, attended by about 100 friends and relatives of the new justice, Judge Spalding sat on the bench with Chief Justice John P. Higgins and Superior Judges Frederick B. Greenhalge of Lowell and Nelson B. Brown of Everett. Assistant Court Clerk Saul J. Hart read the commission, after which the new judge held a reception in his lobby.

Judge Spalding has not yet been assigned to his first case.

Meanwhile, the Massachusetts Judicial Council incorporated in its 17th annual report a proposal by Judge Spalding, who has been a member of that body, to correct what he considers an evil in an existing law. The act drafted by Judge Spalding is designed to check the abuse of the rule that conviction of a parking offense, or some other minor violation, may be used to attack the credibility of a witness.

In its report, the council pointed to the fact that in 17th-century Massachusetts, these administrative regulations were known as "prudential" regulations as distinguished from "criminal" laws, and their violation was not regarded as "crime."

The Judicial Council was created in 1924 for continuous study of Massachusetts' Judicial System.

Judge Spalding was born in Newton Centre, Dec. 8, 1897, and attended Newton public schools.

He was graduated from Harvard Law School. At college he was class chorister and organizer of the student band.

He was appointed chairman of the Newton License Board by former Mayor Sinclair Weeks. He is a former assistant United States District attorney and has been master or auditor in more than 100 cases. For some years Judge Spalding has been a lecturer on Constitutional Law at Northeastern University.

He is a member of the Harvard Club. His wife is the former Jacqueline Veen, a native of Bordeaux, France.

Discover Flaws In Bicycle Laws

Chief of Police Michael T. Hughes, who had recommended that the City of Newton accept the bicycle registration law which was passed at the 1941 session of the Massachusetts Legislature, withdrew his request at the meeting of the Claims and Rules Committee of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night in view of the discovery of what city officials consider flaws in the act.

Chairman George E. Rawson of the claims and rules committee said "it is hoped that the Legislature will pass a better law—one that will not make it mandatory to take boys into court." With the expected increase in bicycle riding it is possible that a law may be passed that would be mandatory throughout the state.

City Received Total of $30,000 For Liquor Licenses Issued Last Year

The City of Newton derived $30,093 in revenue from licenses issued by the License Commission last year, according to the annual report of the commission submitted to Mayor Paul M. Goddard yesterday.

The licenses and fees were as follows: package store, 14, $14,000; retail wine and malt, 13, $3,900; restaurant wine and malt, 33, $10,535; club wine and malt, 4, $1,000; organization, 1, $100; club, seasonal, wine and malt, 3, $300; temporary, malt only, 30, $62; common victualler, 98, $196.

Judge John V. Spalding, just appointed to the Superior Court bench, is chairman of the commission. The other members are A. Leslie Moriarty and Roy V. Collins. The rest of the report follows:

Licenses Suspended

"The Board held several meetings during the year. All complaints received by the Board were investigated and hearings were held where it was found necessary. Suspension of license occurred in four instances of seven days, ten days, thirty days and forty-five days respectively. The violations were serving to minors, serving to intoxicated patrons and a restaurant selling in packages to take off the premises.

"A petition protesting against a common victualler already in business and requesting a limitation of the hours of business was received. A hearing was given with the licensee and several signers of the petition present. The licensee volunteered to adjust the matters in question as far as reasonable to the satisfaction of the protestants.

One Not Renewed

"One restaurant licensee did not renew for the year 1941. One additional retail wine and malt license was issued. Two applications for common victualler licenses were disapproved.

"Rules and regulations were revised the beginning of the year and sent to all licensees.

"Mr. William T. Glidden, Jr., chairman of the Board resigned on June 2, 1941 after eight years of service. Mr. Roy V. Collins was appointed to fill the vacancy and Commissioner John V. Spalding was appointed chairman."

Aldermen Recommend Adopting Speed Limit For Newton Trolleys

Would Have Speed Set at 25 Miles Per Hour, 12 Miles in Congested Areas, 8 Miles Per Hour Around Curves

At the meeting of the Newton Board of Aldermen on Monday night the traffic committee recommended that the Board adopt an ordinance setting the speed limit for trolley cars at 25 miles per hour, 12 miles per hour in congested districts and 8 miles per hour around curves.

The matter was referred to the claims and rules committee for study. The only speed legislation on the books now is an ordinance limiting the speed of street cars to eight miles an hour, which upon investigation has been found to be void as it had not been approved by the State Department of Public Utilities.

If the proposed ordinance is passed by the board, it will be submitted to the State Department for approval.

Both the police and officials of the Boston Elevated ascribed the accident last week to excessive speed and the company dismissed the motorman from its employ.

A petition filed by Joseph Leone and Alfred Traversi for a junk license at 65 Bridge st., Ward 2 and a petition of Angus J. McKillop for a first class license to deal in second hand vehicles at 411 Watertown st., Ward 2, were rejected by the board as the petitioners failed to appear before the license committee as requested. Action on a petition of John J. Glynn of 36 Falmouth rd., West Newton, for a junk collector's license at 10 Kirwin Court, Waltham, was held up by the license committee because the designated place of business was out of town.

The auctioneers' licenses of J. Edward Callanan of 197 Tremont st., Hugh E. Devine of 31 Gilbert st. and John A. Hope of 1412 Beacon st. were renewed by the board.

A pole location on Langley rd., Ward 6, was granted to the Boston Edison Company after the board was informed that the matter had been adjusted to the satisfaction of the abutters, a letter of protest from an abutter having been received at the previous meeting.

The following were drawn for jury service at the Superior Court in Cambridge, to report, April 6:

Civil Business

Edward B. Ransom, 53 Kingswood rd., Auburndale.
William H. Garvin, 4 Church st., Newtonville.
William B. Munsil, 32 Circuit ave., Newton Upper Falls.

Criminal Business

Edward W. Goodlett, 44 Fuller st., West Newton.
William H. Lunney, 324 Central st., Auburndale.
John W. Keefe, 15 Glenmore terrace, Newton Highlands.

The recommendation of Mayor Paul M. Goddard that $125,000 be appropriated for the purpose of granting each Newton city employee a bonus for the year 1942 to compensate for the rise in the cost of living was tabled for further study by the Board of Aldermen last night.

The recommendation, which was held in the finance committee, was to the effect that each employee be granted a bonus of five per cent of the first $1,500 of their annual pay, to be paid in four quarterly installments. The sum thus would not exceed $75.

The board also deferred action on a recommendation by the mayor that $3,888 be appropriated for a WPA project to improve Runaway Brook in Ward 4.

The following appropriations were passed:

Water Department, for replacing 1½ inch main in Wiswall rd., Oak Hill, with an eight-inch main, $2,400.

Engineering Department, for temporary engineering assistants, in advance of the budget, $270.

Executive Department, for salary of confidential executive secretary, for balance of the year $2,500.

Police Department, for employment of ten reserve patrolmen for the rest of the year, $13,425.

SOUTH! From Tremont and Boylston right out through the south-of-the-city suburbs, William Penn Blended Whiskey is a favorite. It's the perfect base for smoother drinks . . . and its "just-right" balance* is the reason.

IT'S THE same story all over town! Men who know whiskey value go for the "just-right" balance* of William Penn. You'll find it means a smoother cocktail, a better highball or a perfect straight drink. Try it today!

*"Just-Right" Balance—The same proportion of choice, old, base whiskeys as contained in the very finest blends—the straight whiskeys in this product are 4 years or more old—35% straight whiskeys, 65% neutral spirits distilled from grain, 86 proof.

DID YOU KNOW THAT . . .

... the first actor to receive a certain applause is said to be Edmund Keene at a special performance in Boston in 1821.
... John Adams and two fellow students once started a "crockery riot" in the Harvard Yard. The riot soon engulfed hundreds and resulted in Adams and his friends being expelled from college for half a year.
... Boston's Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, founded 1638, is the oldest military organization in America.
... the finest blends ever made are distilled with the 35-65 balance . . . exactly the same proportion as the whiskey with the "just-right" balance.*

First Mail Route

The first transcontinental air mail route was established in 1920 between New York and San Francisco.

fell. Grenfell was the son of an English father and a mother who had lived for years in India.

In his books he told of the influence which athletics had upon his future career as a doctor and missionary. For the latter he gave credit to Dwight L. Moody whose sermons decided him to combine spiritual and physical healing.

The last paper on "The Gaspe" written by Mrs. Eugene Ufford, was read by Miss Elizabeth Eaton, chairman of the Program Committee. Several years previously Mrs. Ufford had taken this trip with her husband and the descriptions of the habitant people were often colored with personal recollections. She pictured these people in their country known as Lands End as one who live a quiet peaceful life, content without many of the conveniences enjoyed in the large cities.

The club adjourned at noon to meet two weeks later at the Missionary Home where they would be the guests of Mrs. Arthur Robinson.

Zonta Club

At the home of Mrs. Hattie Hutchinson, 1838 Washington st., Newton Zontians enjoyed an unusually pleasant evening on Monday, March the second.

After the business meeting, Mrs. Hutchinson addressed the Club on the subject of "Mental Lace."

Figuratively speaking, she drew threads from the lace of many countries. The 15th century to the modern era furnishes many patterns of various materials from which to draw. "Books contain valuable mental lace." Evolving from the "subtleties of stitchery," Mrs. Hutchinson said, "Life is full of holes and knots, at times; deceptions hang by a thread of circumstance. We put one another, look, speak, sometimes leaving a strand of 'mental lace' to encourage which serves as a bridge to the next activity or duty."

So, Mrs. Hutchinson, a past member of Newton Zonta Club, cited many inspiring quotations from "Modern Fiction, History, vigorous—and impressive, Relations, simple but compelling—Humorous excerpts, but very true to life." The pattern of "Mental Lace" was richly woven.

"At the present time new fears and new determinations intercept each other. One's part is to observe the worthwhile bits of 'Mental Lace' and endeavor to find the bridge from one epoch to another which will direct one to the philosophy of life most useful and peaceful."

March 2nd being the twelfth anniversary of the Newton Zonta Club, an ornate birthday cake was served as the major part of the celebration.

Mrs. Helena Ramsay graced the occasion as hostess.

The Newton Kiwanis Club held their weekly meeting at the Newtonville Women's Club on March 3rd.

Mr. F. Clark Atwood, of the Atlantic Research Associates, Inc., of Newtonville, gave a most interesting and instructive talk on how skim milk is used in the manufacture of cloth. From forty to fifty per cent of the fibres of the milk product combined with wool are made into materials used in ties, scarfs, hats, suits and even blankets.

Mr. Thompson, president of the Chamber of Commerce was a guest at the luncheon.

An interclub meeting of the Arlington and Newton Kiwanis Clubs will be held at Newtonville on March 24th.

Thieves Cause Large Damage

Investigation of a burglary discovered Sunday at the home of William J. Gunn, 173 Otis st., Newtonville, revealed that the intruders had caused extensive damage in battering their way into the house.

A cellar door was forced open by exerting enough pressure from the outside to force the inside bar off the hooks. A lower panel was smashed in the kitchen door leading from the cellar after an apparent effort to force the lock failed.

A large wall clock in the cellar was smashed. The break was discovered by the caretaker, F. W. Parfement, 149 Otis st. The occupants have been away since Feb. 24 and the extent of the loot obtained by the burglars will not be known until they return. There were indications that the house had been thoroughly searched.

The burglary was discovered about 11:30 a. m. yesterday when the caretaker visited the place to make his tour of inspection. He found the cellar door ajar. He notified the police and Patrolmen Charles H. Marden and Matthew Phillips were sent to the scene to investigate.

Investigators were mystified concerning the motive of the thief in smashing the large wall clock in the cellar.

STONE INSTITUTE AND NEWTON HOME FOR AGED PEOPLE

March 1, 1942

Dear Mr. Melcher:

In memory of my sister, I want to take this method of expressing to you and to the entire personnel of Stone Institute my very deep gratitude for the faithful care she received during her last illness. If she had been living in her own home, no greater expression of love and self-sacrifice could have been possible by members of her family than was shown by Mrs. Grove, Dr. Bowers and the entire staff of nurses. This faithful attention, however, during her illness was but a continuation of the same considerate and courteous care which has been so characteristic of the Home during the entire period of her residence. It is a great comfort to remember that she was so happy in being surrounded by her own personal possessions which helped so much to make her environment a real home.

May I take this occasion to tell you that my sister always held in the highest regard the entire personnel of Stone Institute including, of course, the Directors who are responsible for its successful conduct. I should like to add a personal tribute to the ladies who have been residents with her during these several years and whom she considered among her dearest friends.

While the passing of my sister terminates her contact with the Home, I like to believe that her personality continues. Mrs. and I shall always feel a profound interest in the welfare of the Home and in the continued efforts of those who contribute to the comfort and happiness of the residents who remain and of those who may yet be privileged to pass their declining years among such friends.

Gratefully yours,

To the citizens of Newton:

The Stone Institute and Newton Home for Aged People is one of several agencies under the care and direction of the Newton Community Chest. The work of the Stone Institute is dependent entirely upon your support and I bespeak for the Home your consideration when you are planning the charitable institutions of Newton that you want to be remembered in your will. You can be assured that the funds trusted to the Home's care will be carefully and soundly invested and the income used to give care and comfort to all in their care.

M. W. MELCHER,
President

"What Total War Means" Subject of Talk by Victor Coen, of London, Eng.

"What Total War Means" was the subject of the talk by Mr. Victor Coen, London, England, barrister, at the weekly meeting of the Newton Rotary Club, held Monday at the Brae Burn Country Club. Mr. Coen, a member of the Chancery Bar in active practice in the Inner Temple in London, feels that the United States is just beginning to realize, in a small way, just what total war means in every individual's life. This is Mr. Coen's second trip to America since England has been at war and on these two trips he has made approximately seventy talks in various communities from Maine to Florida.

The British people, said Mr. Coen, had no conception in 1939 of what total war means to each individual. They soon found out that taxation and the sale of war bonds was not so much to raise actual revenue as it was mainly to cut the purchasing power of the people. In a total war the cost is paid for by a reduction in the standard of living of all the people. Most production facilities must be shifted to war products, leaving very little for the civilian consumer. In Great Britain, with a total national income of 24 billion dollars, 70 per cent of it, or 17 billion dollars, is being spent each year for the war effort. In the United States, with a national income of 100 billion, only 26 billion, or 25 per cent, is being allocated for war purposes. The administration, however, is aiming for fifty to sixty per cent expenditure for this purpose.

Mr. Coen gave some very interesting figures on the British Income Tax; for the first $660 of taxable income, after very low exemptions, the rate is 32 1/2 per cent. From there to $6000 the rate is 50 per cent and goes increasingly higher. A man with a salary of $30 a week with a wife and two children, under this schedule, would pay a tax of $156. A single man on this same salary would be taxed $444. The Income Tax, Mr. Coen pointed out, is only the beginning of taxes. On business there is an excess profits tax of one hundred per cent on any profits exceeding those of the year before the war. In order to keep an incentive for business to keep going the government will rebate 20 per cent of this excess profits tax but the rebate will not be paid until after the war, and even then the rebate is subject to an income tax. There is also a general sales tax of 10 1/2 per cent on all items except food, and on the so-called luxury items the tax is increased to 33 per cent.

The British People are severely rationed, not only on account of actual shortages but once again to cut down the purchasing power of the people. Eggs, milk, butter and kindred products are very scarce. Gasoline is rationed to private cars at six gallons a month, resulting in very few private cars remaining on the road. Clothing allowances are handled by the allotment of 66 coupons per person a year, which permits the purchase of one suit, topcoat, shirt, socks and one pair of shoes. Mr. Coen remarked it is no longer respectable to be well dressed in England. There is no shortage of textiles or tailors but this is merely another step in reducing the standard of living. Along with this rationing there has been strict price control legislation which has been strictly enforced. Wages for labor are tied very definitely to the cost of living. This cost of living has risen 30 per cent and wages have risen the same percentage. Taxes and price control have effectively taken the profit out of war. In spite of the heavy taxation Mr. Coen, whose business has dealt extensively with taxation questions, has heard absolutely no complaints about the taxes. Before the war started complaints were numerous and Mr. Coen contributes their absence to a real sense of patriotism.

The British government, through legislation, has been able to control and almost entirely prevent inflation. The changes necessitated by the war have transformed the home and social life of the English people. They never expect to go back to the former standards of living in this generation, but, in spite of this their personal happiness has not been affected. As a matter of fact many people have discovered that happiness is not dependent on personal possessions.

In stating his personal views of the war situation, Mr. Coen said that a final victory would only be accomplished by an invasion of the European continent. He thinks the blockade will not prove effective enough and that the efficacy of bombing civilians has been disproved by the reaction of Londoners to constant bombing attacks. Hitler, at present, through acquisitions in the conquered countries, has the greatest aggregate of artillery, tanks and airplane factories in the world. This has made the Germans supreme on land and is the chief reason why so much money must be spent in the war effort to produce materials to effectively combat him.

The Democracies are naturally slower to react due to their natural mental attitude but Mr. Coen has no doubt as to the final outcome—the United Nations will be victorious!

At the invitation of the club members, fourteen Rotary-Anns, wives of members, attended the meeting as guests. President Charles Meeker presided and the speaker was introduced by Charles Sprague of the Program Committee.

WRITTEN FOR UNCLE SAM

Swag is what the enemy's after. Booty like the burglary gang. Fix a rope up on the gallows. Knock them off and let them hang.

Men and women, show your colors. Raise the old U. S. A. flag. Every home and every hamlet. Never let our emblem sag.

Time for righteous indignation. Days like these the minutes count. Pull together, fellow toilers. Then our victories will mount.

Thieves and ruffians, thugs and liars. On our trail with gun and sword. Fight through, soldiers on to freedom. Never let them be our lord.

Uncle Sam was never beaten. Do your might to win this fight. Sturdy, steady, onward soldiers. Down with wrong and up with right.

In the sky or on the ocean. In the field or on the shore. Front line soldiers, we're behind you. Major, Captain Commodore.

A GOOD RECOMMENDATION

The recommendation by the Board of Aldermen that the speed of trolley cars be regulated merits serious consideration. It would appear that the speed limits suggested—25 miles an hour in open settled areas, 12 miles an hour in congested districts, and 8 miles an hour on curves—are not drastic and if adopted, and enforced, would result in increased safety.

To those accustomed to driving automobiles, such speeds, might appear absurd, but it should be remembered that there is a vast difference between the operation of automobiles and trolley cars. Despite this difference, the speeds recommended by the Aldermen for trolley car operation might well be observed by motorists driving through thickly settled areas and around sharp curves.

Establishment of the proposed speeds for trolley cars may bring up the point that rapid transit would be slowed. But would it? Let us not forget that for the most part trolley cars operate over what might be termed a clear right-of-way, and a speed of 25 miles an hour, would equal, if not surpass, the greater speed of automobiles, which are constantly held up by traffic congestion.

An ordinance such as the Aldermen recommend would appear to be a step toward preventing recurrence of the accident which happened here last week.

Col. Furlong Here March 9th

The next meeting of the Central Club will be held at Central Church, Newtonville, Monday, March 9, with supper as usual at 6:30. The speaker will be Col. Charles Wellington Furlong, and his subject is "Turkey—Neutrality's Last Frontier." Col. Furlong is a leading authority on this subject, having served in military, diplomatic and private capacities in Turkey, the Balkans, and the Near East. He has crossed the Mediterranean many times, he knows the old Turkey and the new, and counts as his personal friend the present president Ismet Inonu. He also has had a personal acquaintance with Lawrence of Arabia, King Feisal of Syria, and Maj. Gen. Wavell.

The club has decided to omit its annual show this year, since so many of the men are occupied with civic duties. It is believed that the members will want to contribute to the club's organ fund, by giving as a minimum the equivalent of the price of two tickets to the show, and that many will wish to contribute a larger sum, thus recognizing the pledge which the club made to raise this fund.

Newton Second In Safety Class

After winning first place in its population class for the year 1941, Newton dropped into second place last month in the state highway safety contest, the monthly bulletin of the Massachusetts Safety Council revealed today.

"Brookline has succeeded in pushing Newton, last year's winner, into second place," the bulletin stated. "Neither one had a fatality, and three other cities were equally fortunate. Brookline had a reduction of 12 in collisions and 14 in injured, as compared with a year ago. Newton also made a reduction."

Newton was charged with 50 persons injured, 30 collisions, 30 accident points, and an accident point rate of 42.9 per 100,000 population.

Newton Boy Is Re-Captured

A Newton boy who escaped from the Shirley Industrial School and fled to Maine was apprehended in Wiscasset, Me., and brought back to Newton last Friday night by Sergeants Richard L. Bannon and Patrick J. King.

In the Newton District Court today the prisoner, who is 16 years old and lives in Auburndale, was held in $1000 bail on charges of being a fugitive from the state institution and using an auto without authority. The case was continued until March 6.

The boy fled from Shirley on Feb. 13 and met several companions in Boston and with them plotted to get out of the state to prevent his recapture.

He and three others stole a car in Newton and drove to Wiscasset, Me., where he obtained a job cutting lumber on a farm. The others started back home, but at Bath, Me., they wrecked the car and were arrested. They were brought back to Newton and were sentenced for the car theft.

The police yesterday received information of the whereabouts of the Shirley fugitive and Sergeants King and Bannon immediately started for Maine and brought him back.

Double Defense Job Being Done By Women Active in Girl Scout Leadership

A double defense job is being done by women who are active in Girl Scout leadership. Miss Margaret Twohy of Boston, executive director of Girl Scout New England Region, told representatives of nine neighboring councils, who were the guests of the Newton Council at a District Defense Institute at the War Memorial Building, Newton Centre.

Miss Twohy, who was the principal speaker at the morning session, last Friday said in part: "Girl Scout troop leadership is a two-way defense job. Girls want to help their country. It is up to women to see they are given the opportunities and facilities to be of service."

Mrs. William V. M. Fawcett, commissioner of the Newton Council, presided at the institute. The principal speaker at the afternoon session was Mrs. Theron Walker, former Newton commissioner. William V. M. Fawcett, chief air raid warden in Newton, was a morning speaker.

Round table discussion followed.

Local Teacher

The resignation of Leonard Savignano, a teacher at the Oak Hill School, to accept a position in the Wilesey public schools, was accepted by the Newton School Committee last night.

City Departments Discussed
By League of Women Voters

City Departments were discussed at the meeting of the Local Affairs Committee of the Newton League of Women Voters on Monday, March 2. These meetings are held weekly in the Community Room of the Newtonville Library at 2:30. All citizens are welcome.

Miss Elizabeth Bartlett reported on her talk with Commissioner Haughey of the Street Department. It is he whom we must thank for the credit Newton has received for its patriotic efforts to salvage waste paper—a move, incidentally, which adds $20,000.00 to the City Treasury.

Mrs. Clifford G. Caseley told of the delightful reception accorded her at police headquarters. Chief Hughes assured her that the police force will be held at its present high level and any complaints will be properly dealt with.

Mrs. H. C. Bronson, Jr., reported on the School Department.

The school personnel has co-operated wholeheartedly with all angles of civilian defense in training teachers and students.

Mrs. John L. MacNeil, Chairman of the Local Affairs Committee, in opening the discussions, gave figures on the area, population and percentage of tax dollar spent by each department. In 1940 Street and School Departments combined spent about 45 cents of each tax dollar. Reduction of the tax rate in 1941 from $29.20 to $28.00 was due in part to efficient management by the Mayor and department heads. We may, however, expect an increase in 1942 because of the proposed bonus to city employees and reduced revenue from excise and gasoline taxes.

On Thursday, March 12th, members of the Newton League of Women Voters will visit the Framingham Reformatory for Women.

Young Woman Seriously Injured When
Escort's Car Crashes Into Stone Post

A young woman was seriously injured and her escort lost several teeth when the automobile in which they were riding crashed into an ornamental stone post at Hunnewell circle, near the foot of Washington st. hill, Newton, early Sunday morning.

The victims, Frances Sweeney, 25, of 16 Evergreen ter., Auburndale, and Frank E. Walton, 24, of 5 Spencer st., Lexington, were removed to St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Brighton, in a taxicab.

The girl was found to have suffered a fractured jaw, a fractured collar bone, contusions and abrasions about the legs, lacerations on the face and the loss of several teeth. Walton, who was driving the car, also lost several teeth. The girl's condition was reported as serious.

When he made his report to the police, Walton revealed that before reaching Newton, the car had also been involved in an accident at St. James and Clarendon sts., Boston. He said his machine was struck on the right side by a New Hampshire car, driven by Henry Golden of Pittsfield, N. H.

Concerning the Newton accident, he said he was talking to the girl when the car suddenly swerved to one side and struck the granite landmark. The machine was wrecked.

He said he got out of the car and hailed a passing taxicab. The cab driver and two U. S. Marines who were passengers in the taxi placed the injured girl in the taxi and she and Walton were removed to the hospital.

Aldermen Meet

Treasury Department, for retirement of Hurricane Loan Bonds, $1,497.85; for retirement of Relief Loan bonds, $682.36. A favorable report was voted on John A. Foote, 863 Watertown st., Ward 3, as an applicant for a certificate of incorporation of "Chaplains' Arsenal of Books." A report on the applicant was requested by the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

A hearing was assigned for the next board meeting on the proposed construction and acceptance of the unaccepted proportion of Falmouth rd., West Newton, under the betterment law.

The aldermen voted to accept Varick Hill rd., Waban, which was constructed by the general law by the property owners. Vice-president Joseph B. Jamieson, chairman of the public works committee, said the work was done under approval of the city engineer and the street commissioner, but Alderman Temperley reiterated his opposition to the practice of constructing streets under the general law, asserting that work costs less and the product is not as good as streets built by the city under the betterment law.

The board passed an order authorizing the Council of Municipal Defense to order practice blackouts from time to time, with the approval of the mayor. Chairman Rawson said the order would absolve the city of liability for accidents and would place the auxiliary police under the authority of the chief of police.

The Board denied seven claims for damage.

On the claim of Albert E. Duffill for damage caused by the flooding of a cellar of a house owned by him at 73 Robinhood st., Auburndale, after a water main in the street had burst.

Alderman Temperley cast a doubt on the validity of a ruling by City Solicitor Joseph W. Bartlett that the city was not liable in the case. The city solicitor's ruling was reported to the board by Chairman George E. Rawson of the claims and rules committee when he reported the committee's unanimous vote recommending leave to withdraw. Temperley said he would vote against the acceptance of the committee's report as he was not convinced that the city was not liable.

The claims unanimously turned down were: Marion A. Keough, for personal injuries in fall on Madison ave. sidewalk.

R. K. Bachelier, for damage to property at 27 Stony Brae rd., due to blasting for sewer construction.

Joseph Shaughnessy, for hand injury, received by his son, John J. Shaughnessy, on a city fence. Chairman Rawson told the board the boy had been swinging on the fence and had been warned away by a policeman and a teacher.

Rose Arduino, for personal injuries in fall on Walnut st. sidewalk.

Joseph P. Grinley, for damage to motor truck by overhanging bough of a tree on Washington st.

Malcolm P. McKinnon, for damage to his automobile in a collision with a city truck. Chairman Rawson told the Board that the city driver had assumed liability for the accident.

The Cast of "Pinafore" as Presented by Newton High School

Two performances of the operetta, "H. M. S. Pinafore," a band concert and a carnival were included in the program presented by teachers and pupils at the Newton High School last Friday in honor of the 100th anniversary of the birth of Sir Arthur Sullivan.

The operetta, "H. M. S. Pinafore," or "The Lass That Loved a Sailor," by Gilbert and Sullivan, was presented in the afternoon and repeated in the evening, under the direction of James Remy, supervisor of music in the Newton schools.

Starred in the famous role of little "Buttercup," a Portsmouth boat woman, was Miss Elizabeth L. Mayo, a science teacher in the high school. Principal Raymond A. Green, J. Collins Lingo, and Herbert A. Clark, teachers, were faculty members in the leading roles. The pupils who sang solo roles were Herbert Colcord, Gwendolyn Guile, Jacqueline Levant, Edna Mayer, and Richard Seely. There was a large cast of the First Lord's sisters, cousins, and aunts and a chorus of lusty sailors, boys from the school and faculty members C. Elwood Drake and Walter M. Taylor.

The staging by Mr. Peterson, Mr. Peltier, and crew called for a transformation of the platform anchored off Portsmouth. Before the performance of "Pinafore," the band under the leadership of Mr. Lingo offered a short program ending with the "Stars and Stripes Forever" by Sousa. The intermission between the acts was enlivened by Carnival (Continued on page 8)

Practice Yellow Warning Light Is Flashed To Test ARP Services Here

Report Center Manned Within Few Minutes

More than 1,100 air wardens, auxiliary police and firemen were called to their posts throughout the city Monday night when a surprise "practice yellow warning" was ordered by the Newton A. R. P. chiefs.

The alert was flashed to the members of one eight-hour shift of the A. R. P. system for the purpose of testing the efficiency of the system. The test proved successful, according to William V. M. Fawcett, chief air warden, both in the number who responded and the speed with which they reached their posts.

"Some weak points were discovered," he declared, "but steps will be taken to remedy them. This was the purpose of the test."

Report Center Manned

The report center at Fire Alarm headquarters was fully manned within a few minutes after the "yellow warning" was sent out. The public was not involved in the practice alert and no sirens or bells were sounded. Word of the "yellow warning" which indicates an impending raid, was spread to the members of the system by their leaders.

The members reported at their respective posts and communi-ated with the report center by telephone to show that they were in readiness for duty. They were not, however, required to report any incidents, nor were they called to duty on the streets.

In addition to the chief air warden, those in charge of the test were John M. Bierer, chairman of the Newton Committee on Public Safety; Douglass B. Francis, head of the auxiliary police and firemen; Deputy Chief Warden Lyscom A. Bruce, Jr., and Deputy Chief Warden Alexander Standish.

Auburndale Pilot Killed In Crash

An Army transport plane piloted by an Auburndale man plunged into the St. Lucie River near Stewart, Fla., Thursday night, officials at Wright Field, Dayton, O., announced Friday.

The pilot was 1st Lieut. John R. Evans, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Evans of 67 Hancock st., Auburndale. The parents departed for Florida at once after receiving word of the accident last night.

The plane, containing seven men, submerged when it hit the water. Air Corps officials at Wright Field stated it was on a routine flight at the time.

In addition to Lieut. Evans, those aboard from nearby Patterson Field were Lieut. Harry E. Bullock, Jr., co-pilot, of Lexington, Ky.; Sergt. Ercel Stallard, aviation engineer, of Lather, Ky.; and Corp. Clarence F. Ayres, radio operator, of Huntington, W. Va.

The other three aboard, from the Middleboro, Pa., air depot, were Lieuts. Clements and Simpson and Sergt. Rutko.

Lieut. Evans, 25 years old, married and father of a nine-month-old daughter, was graduated from Green Briar Military School at Louisville, W. Va., and Kentucky State University in 1938. He trained at Randolph and Kelly Fields and received his wings and commission in 1939. He married Dorothy Hillenmeyer, of Lexington, Ky., two years ago and they have been residing in Osborne, O. At military school he was captain of a company and president of his class.

His parents have resided in Auburndale for the past eight years having come here from the South. The elder Evans is general manager of the Island Creek Coal Company, Boston.

G. M. Sullivan, Jr. Is Commissioned

Gerald Michael Sullivan, Jr., 23, of 69 Otis st., Newtonville, Massachusetts, took his place with the flying forces of the U. S. Navy this week when he completed months of rigorous flight training at the U. S. Naval Air Station, Jacksonville, Florida.

Commissioned an Ensign in the Naval Reserve, Sullivan dons the Navy's "Wings of Gold," emblem of the nation's corps of naval aviators. He reports now for active service as a flying officer with a unit of the Navy's air arm.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald M. Sullivan of Newtonville, the newly-commissioned Ensign graduated from Newton, Mass., High School in 1936 and Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., in 1940.

Newton's War Mother No. 1 Has Five Sons In Services

Mayor Goddard, in Letter to Mrs. M. Iagulli, Extends Appreciation

Although required to register recently as an "enemy alien," Mrs. Marie Iagulli of 22 Rockland st., Newton Highlands, as the mother of five sons in the armed services of the country, is probably deserving of the title of Newton's "War Mother No. 1."

Four of the Iagulli brothers are in the Army and one is in the Navy.

Official recognition of the remarkable patriotic record of the Iagulli family was accorded today by Mayor Paul M. Goddard. In a letter addressed to Mr. and Mrs. Vincenzo Iagulli, he stated:

"It has just been brought to my attention that you have five boys in the service, four in the Army and one in the Navy. You are thus making an extraordinary contribution to the defense of our country at this time of national crisis.

"You deserve our unqualified appreciation and I am taking this opportunity to convey the thanks of the community to you in my official capacity as Mayor of the City."

The first son to enter the service was Raphael. He joined the regular Army six years ago and is serving his second enlistment.

Two years ago Michael, now 20, enlisted in the Navy. Angelo, 22, and Anthony, 21, chose the National Guard and a year ago were inducted into the regular Army with their National Guard unit. The fifth son to be called to the colors was Carmelo, 24, who was inducted two months ago as a selectee of Local Board 113.

The elder Iagulli is a naturalized citizen, having taken out his second papers about six years ago, but Mrs. Iagulli is still classed as an alien. At the time that her husband took out his first papers the law provided that a wife automatically became a citizen when her husband was naturalized, but before Iagulli was fully admitted to citizenship the law had been changed so that the change in Iagulli's status did not affect his wife. She therefore found it necessary recently to register as an alien.

Mr. and Mrs. Iagulli were born in Italy, but were married here and all of their children were born in this country. In addition, to those in the armed services, they have a son, Orazio, 32; and three daughters, Virginia M. Iagulli, Mrs. Josephine Papa of Newton and Mrs. Thomasina Grace of Fayville.

Alderman Seeks More Buses and 1-Fare Zone

Asks Public Support For Better Service

More bus service and elimination of the two-fare zones within the city were demanded today in a public pronouncement by Alderman John Temperley, who addressed the Middlesex & Boston Street Railway Company.

"Should it be suggested to the officials of the Middlesex and Boston Street Railway Company that, especially these days when auto riding is being curtailed, more bus service in Newton would be welcome, the idea might not be too well received," Alderman Temperley stated.

"The bus company apparently is not overanxious to spend money to prospect for business.

Paying for "Dead Horse"

"Not forgetting that present-day bus riders are believed to be paying for a 'dead horse,' i.e., a few liabilities incurred in the street railway days of a score or more years ago, the question may be asked if the local bus officials are giving comparable service to that enjoyed in other nearby communities with a population about the same as Newton. Anyone who has ridden for a few years on local buses cannot but observe how (Continued on page 8)

An invitation to attend the Massachusetts Defense Safety Conference at the Hotel Statler on March 26 and 27 to receive a special certificate of achievement in recognition of the city's attainment of first place in highway safety in its population class last year was received by Mayor Paul M. Goddard yesterday from Lewis E. MacBrayne, executive secretary of the Massachusetts Safety Council.

Fire Alarm Equipment For Headquarters Here Is Deferred By Mayor

Mayor Recommends $325,238.79 for Fire Department During 1942

A request of the Newton Fire Department for an appropriation of $5,700 for the purchase of fire alarm equipment for headquarters has been omitted by Mayor Paul M. Goddard from his 1942 budget recommendations to the Board of Aldermen.

Although the equipment was desired to keep pace with the growth of the fire alarm system, Fire Department officials have agreed to defer the matter again. The sum of $4,610 was requested for the purpose last year, but at that time the mayor also failed to recommend the appropriation.

The budget requests of the Fire Department this year totaled $327,338.79, but were cut to $325,238.79 by the mayor.

In addition to eliminating the request for fire alarm equipment, the mayor cut the item for telephone expense from $1,775 to $1,675 and that of maintenance of apparatus from $7,500 to $7,300. The department requested $12,- 600 for six air raid horn signals, but the number was reduced to three by the mayor and $6,300 has already been appropriated for the purpose by the Board of Aldermen.

Water Commissioner's Report Shows 80,000,000 Gallon Increase in 1941

Increase Believed Due To Lack of Rainfall

The report submitted to Mayor Paul M. Goddard by Water Commissioner Joseph J. Murray shows an increase in the water consumption of the city in 1941 of 80,000,000 gallons, over that of the preceding year. In 1941 the total consumption was 1,957,572,000 gallons. In 1940 it was 1,877,589,000 gallons. The increase is believed to have been due to the subnormal rainfall the past year.

Of the amount consumed in 1941 1,897,082,000 gallons were derived from the city's own water system and 16,490,000 gallons from the Metropolitan water system. In 1940 1,866,929,000 gallons were derived from the local system and 10,660,000 gallons were purchased from the Metropolitan system during the summer months.

Commissioner Murray stated that the production cost of Newton water was $42.65 per million gallons and that of the Metropolitan water, $126.25 per million gallons. The production cost of the Newton water without taking into account amortization, depreciation and obsolescence was listed as follows:

Pumping station salaries, $23,425.

Pumping station expenses, $43,571.52.

Conduits, lands and reservoir expenditures, $13,884.23.

Total $80,880.75.

The production cost of the Metropolitan water delivered to the Newton distribution system was recorded as:

1941 Metropolitan rate per million gallons delivered to Ward st., $108.10.

Power cost per million gallons pumping from Ward st. to War-bar Hill, $16.15.

Attendants, oil heat, etc., per million gallons, $2.

Total, $126.25 per million gallons.

COL. FURLONG TALKS ON THE WAR AT CENTRAL CLUB

Friends and members of the Central Club, heard a talk by Col. Charles Wellington Furlong, F. R. G. S., on the timely topic "Turkey, Neutrality's Last Frontier," last Monday evening at the Central Congregational Church.

Col. Furlong pointed out that this war is a trade war, and drew a parallel between this and the Crusade Wars in the past, which have been struggles for trade routes Turkey's foreign policy, he said, is peace at any price except a threat against it by a foreign power. Turkey has always feared Russia, and Russia's great desire for control of the Dardanelles. Turkey can raise an army of 2 to 3 million from its population of 14 million, he continued.

Col. Furlong said that the U. S. foreign policy is the Monroe Doctrine, England's, Control of the Seas, Germany's A push to the East and France's was The development of a Colonial Empire.

Col. Furlong's acquaintance with Lawrence of Arabia, his secret mission to the Sheik of the Senoussi, his service with King Feisal in Syria, with Maj. General Wavell in Egypt and Lord Allenby on the Western Egyptian frontier, are only a few of the highspots of his interesting career as a soldier. As an explorer, he has penetrated the Barbary hinterlands and, beneath the water of Tripoli Harbor, discovered the wreck of the U. S. Frigate Philadelphia, just 100 years after it was burned and sunk by the pirate, Decatur. He is the author of "The Gateway to the Sahara" and numerous articles relating to Gibraltar, Malta, the Barbary States and Near East.

In this unusual lecture, a fascinating insight was given into the Turkish westernization movement, in the most remarkable renaissance of any nation in modern history, and Colonel Furlong showed how the present war really centers around Turkey and why. His work in both official and civil capacities "not only enabled him to study Turkey and Mediterranean history in the making but places him as a part of that history."

Fun and psychology were blended in the presentation of "Psychology in Action," by Henry Gerald the guest speaker at the Tuesday afternoon meeting of the Auburndale Women's Club. Mr. Gerald gave a most interesting demonstration of mental telepathy and thought transference with members of the audience as subjects. Basically scientific, the demonstrations were at times highly amusing as when he persuaded his audience to press their hands together and then had to "break the spell" before some of the members could release their hands. His ability as a mind-reader was established beyond a doubt as he correctly enumerated names, dates and numbers. Mrs. Bradley L. Hill as day chairman introduced Mr. Gerald. The business meeting which preceded the entertainment was conducted by the president Mrs. Eldin Lynn and an announcement was made by Mrs. Neal Herrick of a Community sing to be held in the lounge of the clubhouse on Sunday evening, March 22 at 7:30.

PREPARED!

Soon, very soon, we hope, Newton householders will display on their doors a sticker bearing the word "Prepared", over a picture of an ominous-looking Nazi plane, and the reassuring letters, ARP, Air Raid Precautions.

These will be furnished to Newton residents by the Air Raid Wardens after they assure themselves that the resident has taken the very simple and reasonable precautions of protecting his home against incendiary bombs.

It is surely not a difficult thing to see that your attic is clear of rubbish and that other material is neatly arranged in bundles or in trunks. Sand is essential, but in the light of recent developments it seems immaterial whether the sand is in barrels, pails, bags or other proper containers. There should be a long-handled shovel, either to spread the sand or to use in removing the bomb, for which a metal pail will also be useful.

At some strategic location there should be sufficient hose, with adequate water connections to reach danger spots, heavy gloves, a flashlight and a ladder if needed for access to attic. A stirrup pump and two pails of water may be used as a substitute for the hose.

Your warden will gladly advise you about the best precautions for your house. Wardens are trained by means of lectures, demonstration and practice in home defense, first aid and general organization of air raid services. This training is continued under competent leadership until each unit is efficient and capable of operating smoothly under any circumstances. Your air raid wardens, men and women, are chosen on their ability to instruct fellow citizens in their neighborhoods and to prevent panic and hysteria by their example of sound judgment, level-headedness and resourceful management in any emergency.

Be prepared. Earn and display your ARP sticker, as evidence of your good judgment and as an incentive to your neighbor. We must face the grim reality that we are preparing not against imaginary dangers, but against Nazi planes.

Sticker to be furnished residents by air raid wardens when they have been assured that the resident's home has been properly prepared for protection against bombs.

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor of the Graphic:

The other day while travelling through Wakefield by bus we noticed a boy pushing a cart (the same kind of push cart used by fruit vendors) filled with old paper, discarded tin cans and other junk that he must have picked up for sale for defense. He seemed to be heading towards the Town Dump to see what more he could secure for the completion of his load.

This morning I traveled to Boston from Newton Centre by train and noticed a goodly quantity of discarded metal in the form of old automobiles, iron drums, etc., that might be gathered for sale to help the emergency. Some was in the ditch besides the railroad and some was on the surface of the nearly leveled area. The area is the donated Webster Playground. Possibly some enterprising boy or boys will get this metal and sell it, as we used to do when we were boys. Let us hope so.

Victory Gardens Talk by Dempsey

Vegetables or flowers? What vegetables will you plant this summer. Ought you to use valuable fertilizer and seed that may be scarce or should you leave them to the professional grower who will produce four times your crop with one fourth your risk? Is it right for you to spend the time raising flowers when there is so much defense work calling to be done?

Such are the questions that come to mind when the ground begins to soften and the cornels take on a brighter hue. To answer them along with others of a more definite nature the Garden Club of Newton Highlands is planning an open meeting the last of the month. Paul Dempsey of the Waltham Field Station will present the subject of Victory Gardens and those who know Mr. Dempsey are sure that no one can answer vexing questions more intelligently. Everyone interested in garden matters of any kind is invited. Come and share your perplexities.

The new tower on Armory Hall is being pushed upward, and the fire department committee hope to have the new fire alarm bell and striker in position by the last of next week.

The electric lights were not lighted on Tuesday night and everybody had a chance to compare the electric light with the gas-lamps, which seemed to burn more dimly than usual, by contrast with the brilliancy of the electric lights.

The bill to incorporate the West Newton Savings Bank was favorably reported in the lower branch of the state legislature on Thursday.

During the severe rain storm of last Friday night, the Auburndale tunnel contained about three feet of water, and it was necessary to guard the entrance with red lights to prevent the people from entering. The water seems to run in at the entrances, and the basins are too small to carry it off fast enough. Now that spring is near at hand, we hope something will be done to remedy the evil, as it is a great inconvenience to people in Auburndale.

With over $2000,000 increase in the city budget, added to the higher cost of living, our taxpayers face the certainty of heavy drafts on their bank accounts.

As a result of the fine work of the Highland Glee Club at its recent concert in Newtonville and the splendid spirit that prevails among the members — requests from many different parts of Newton are being sent to members for an associate membership. The club is at present very much oversubscribed and membership will be limited to 150 necessitates some other method being adopted to the end that our friends in the northern and western part of the city may hear the Glee Club. It is hoped that lovers of good music in Newton will come forward and make this possible.

Plan Survey of Dwelling Units

Shortage of Housing For Defense Workers

A survey of the dwelling units in Newton is to be made starting this month by the Research Division of the WPA at the request of the Division of Defense Housing Co-ordination of the office of Price Administration. The purpose of this survey is to gather data which may aid in bringing about a solution of the problem resulting in the shortage of housing for defense workers, and will cover certain "blocks" in the city to provide a cross section picture of the situation. The data gathered will be transmitted to Washington and a copy of the report will be sent to Mayor Paul M. Goddard.

Among the facts which the enumerators will be required to gather will be the number of rooms for rent in occupied houses, and in unoccupied houses the enumerators will try to ascertain the condition of the building, whether it has all necessary facilities, is for rent, for sale or vacant for other reasons. They will also record the type of structure of the dwelling units, whether one or two family, multi-family or apartment house, hotel or commercial and whether the majority of dwelling units in a block are occupied by white people, negro or other race.

Paid in Full

Think of it! No more "rent" to pay for the rest of their lives!

Wouldn't you like to be in their shoes? Of course, but perhaps it seems like too much to expect. Yet thousands have reached such an enviable position—easily—through the Co-operative Bank "Monthly-pay Buying Plan."

It's a simple plan—arranged so that people can pay for their homes—a little at a time—out of income—just as they might otherwise pay rent—and enjoy the use of their homes while they are paying. Ask about this plan at your nearest Co-operative Bank.

More Buses

the traffic has grown and is getting larger with the passing days.

"Comparisons just a few—are offered to show the consideration of the bus situation—10-year contract, with a few years to go notwithstanding—should not be amiss. For instance, some communities outside of Newton enjoy a five-cent fare (no transfers) for a ride to a mile or two while in Newton it costs 20 cents by bus to ride from Boylston and Woodward sts. to Oak Hill, a distance of two miles or less. Other high-priced fares might be cited in this city. It does not seem too much to expect the bus company to adjust itself to 1942 conditions rather than to continue outmoded street railway procedure.

"Were an all-Newton ticket, good for a one-way trip between any two points in Newton, to be sold, the bothersome transfer issue would then become less of a bugbear. Another method of increasing travel and accommodating the riding public, in operation in some communities, would be the sale of $1 tickets good for one week's riding on local buses. Let the local bus company institute this (to Newton) innovation and the result in extra dollars received would be surprising.

"More bus service and a recast of fares rates where irregularities exist are up to the bus officials. The public, however, cannot expect the bus officials to go into action without some prod. A continued, aroused and insistent demand on the part of the public should in time result in better service. Talk up the subject with your neighbor."

Anniversary of Parish Planned

On St. Patrick's Night, Tuesday, March 17, an entertainment and social is to be held at Our Lady's Auditorium. This year marks the 50th anniversary of the parish school and in keeping with the school motto "For God and Country," sixteen United States Defense Bonds, totaling $725.00 will be awarded that evening.

Reverend John A. Sheridan, L.P.P., pastor of Our Lady's Church is the State Chaplain of Massachusetts for the Hibernians and an excellent two hour program of well-known Irish entertainers will feature the evening. Dancing, old-time and modern will follow the entertainment and in the lower hall, there will be a display of Irish linens, lace, pottery, etc. Games of amusement and skill will also be provided at the fair.

A special feature of the evening will be the conclusion of the Paul Revere 1942 Defense Ride. The first four (4) boys and girls finishing in the contest will each be awarded a $25 Defense Bond, a new bicycle, or a two weeks' vacation at a summer camp. The next six (6) children to finish will receive $5.00 each in U. S. Defense Stamps. The entire program endeavors to stress the loyalty that is necessary financially to aid our country and to pay honor to those whose live spirit has made such sacrifices possible.

The committee in charge is headed by Martin E. Conroy, president of Div. 35 A. O. H. as general chairman. Social and county officers as well as members of the parish are aiding in the arrangements.

People you may know

FITZHUGH MAYBEE—the telephoner who is surprised when he doesn't get what he didn't call. He jumbles his numbers, mumbles his words, and stumbles around on the dial. He hears more strange voices than an amateur radio operator.

Small matter? Yes—and no. An operator takes only 21 seconds extra to correct a customer's calling error. But in the present war emergency we are a bit embarrassed handling 117,544 such errors per day! Figure it out... 21 seconds multiplied by 117,544 equals 2,468,424 seconds... 41,140 minutes... 685 hours of equipment time and operator time tied up. And we can't get much equipment... because of raw material shortages!

After all, telephoning correctly isn't so difficult. And most people's numbers are right in the Directory.

Congressman Eliot Urges Civilian Defense Workers Have Benefit of Federal Compensation Laws

In a speech delivered in the House of Representatives in Washington last Monday, Congressman Thomas H. Eliot stated: "The men and women who are acting as air raid wardens, the members of the demolition squad, the people who are on guard S. now in case we have air raids later, are playing a tremendously important part in the war itself."

"Last month the Senate voted that such people working for the Nation should be protected by the Nation as far as possible. The Senate voted to confer upon active civilian defense workers the security provided by the Federal Compensation Laws. For reasons I cannot fully understand, the House struck this provision from the bill."

"Now we here in the House have a chance to remedy and to show that we realize the importance of our Civilian Defense workers in every village and city and town. These workers, in the main, are unpaid. They are taking courses, nights, and as more and more practice blackouts occur, they are going around the streets at all hours of the night doing their job. If an air raid comes—and up in my part of the country we know that we have got to be fully prepared for it—these people will be in great danger, and we can count on many of them to show that they are real heroes."

"In England the Air Raid Precautions workers are compensated by law if they are injured in the line of duty. And one who remembers—and who does not—the bombing of London and other cities, knows the bravery that was shown by all these volunteer workers striving to increase the safety of their fellow citizens."

"I am proud of the wonderful spirit that has been shown in Civilian Defense work in Greater Boston. I know the spirit of sacrifice that has already been shown by thousands of Civilian Defense workers and the reservoir of patriotic courage upon which they will draw if the bombs do fall. They are a vital part of a great national effort and if they should be wounded, or injured in the line of duty, they will be honorable war casualties. The least the nation can do is to afford them the same financial protection, in case of injury, that it affords to other employees."

Ask Funds For 2 New Summer Playgrounds

Mayor Recommends Playgrounds For Newtonville and West Newton

Appropriation of funds to make possible the opening of two new playgrounds in Newton next summer was requested by the Recreation Department and approved by Mayor Paul M. Goddard in his 1942 budget recommendations to the Board of Aldermen.

The aldermen will act on the matter this month, as the budget must be passed before April 1. The Recreation Department also included in its budget an item of $500 for the repair of the bleachers on the visitors' side of Dickinson Stadium.

The decision to repair the stands was made by the School Committee after they were condemned as unsafe by Public Building Commissioner Arthur Campbell. The work must be done under the direction of the Recreation Department, however, as that board has control over the school fields.

The two playgrounds for which funds are sought are the so-called Albemarle land in Newtonville and the land adjacent to the Franklin School on Derby st., West Newton. For this purpose the item of salaries for directors, for which $29,611 was expended last year, has been increased by the department to $32,419 and approved by the mayor, and the item of maintenance, for which $32,610 was spent last year, was increased to $38,219 by the department, but that sum was reduced to $36,707 by the mayor.

The residents of the sections where the new playgrounds are located have been carrying on agitation for the use of the land, and the department has done some work of grading to make the land suitable for the purpose. If the budget requests are granted by the Board of Aldermen, additional work will be done and the areas will be supervised by playground directors next summer. It is also planned to construct a baseball diamond at the Albemarle land at Watertown st. and Albemarle rd.

The Recreation Department also requested the sum of $3,021 to be transferred to the School department to pay the cost of heat, light and power and janitor service required for the use of school buildings by the Recreation department. The sum was reduced to $2,281 by the mayor to cover the cost of janitor service only because City Solicitor Joseph W. Bartlett ruled that the School Department could not legally exact a charge from another city department for heat, light and power. He stated that to do so would be equivalent to renting the building to the other departments, a procedure that is not authorized by law.

A request by the Recreation Department for $100 for a petty cash account was disapproved by the mayor and a request for $641.50 for new equipment was cut to $458 by the mayor.

The other items in the department's budget, as recommended by the mayor are:

Salary, commissioner, $3,900.
Clerical assistance, $2,592.
Temporary clerks, $225.
Office expense, $843.
Maintenance of automobiles, $1,700.
Replacement of equipment, $3,675.
Care and alteration of school grounds, $6,100, including $500 for the repair of the wooden stands at Dickinson Stadium.
Outside charge account, $35.
Out of state travel expense, $125.
New truck, $1,120.

The total budget of the department, as recommended by the mayor, was $92,281.80, compared with $94,816.94 requested by the department. The total expended last year was $82,916.62. The sum spent in 1940 was $78,245.47.

Other officers nominated were Carl Eschelbach, esteemed leading knight; John Keefe, esteemed loyal knight; R. John Henderson and Kenneth Stiles for esteemed lecturing knight; Thomas F. Coppinger, secretary; D. Walter Kern, treasurer; Patrick Donahue, filer; Robert A. Vachon, trustee for five years; Bernard T. Haffey, alternate delegate to the convention.

Memorial services were held for Richard E. Glynn, with a eulogy by Richard Knoland, and for Walter Dunphy, with a eulogy by Thomas F. Coppinger.

Leading Knight Matthew Hurley reported for the social and welfare committee that the socials held Wednesday evenings at the hall were being well attended. Past Exalted Ruler William E. Earle, chairman of the defense committee announced that donations for the war fund were being rapidly received.

Edgar Callahan for the inter-logic committee announced a banquet (Continued on Page 8)

REDUCE SPEED OF TROLLEYS IN NEWTON TO 20-MILE LIMIT

Aldermen Vote New Ordinance To Curb Speed and Reduce Accidents

An ordinance limiting the speed of trolley cars in Newton to 20 miles an hour and the maximum speed around curves to 10 miles an hour was adopted at the meeting of the Newton Board of Aldermen on Monday night. The street traffic committee following the two recent accidents on the Boston Elevated line in Newton had recommended a speed limit of 25 miles an hour with a maximum of 12 miles an hour in congested districts and 8 miles an hour around curves. In submitting their report on Monday night to the board the claims and rules committee reduced the proposed speed limit to 20 miles per hour and at the same time increased the proposed speed limit around curves to 10 miles. The new ordinance was adopted by a vote of 14 to 3 and the old ordinance was repealed. The measure will be submitted to the State Department of Public Utilities for the necessary approval before it can become law. The three members who voted against the ordinance were Aldermen Akins, Everts and Inches.

A petition was granted to the Boston Edison Company for two pole locations on Washington st., Ward 5, to replace two poles which are to be removed. The petition of Vincent P. Roberts for a permit to install an underground tank and to keep 500 gallons of gasoline at 246 Beacon st., Newton Centre, was granted after a recess. The petitioner was represented by William White of Rosindale who explained that the present 120 gallon tank is corroded and leaks and that the petitioner keeps the gasoline for use in his private car.

A petition for the construction and acceptance of Falmouth rd., West Newton, from Parmenter rd. to Ellsworth rd., was opposed by five out of six property owners. Vincent Campisi of Falmouth rd. spoke in favor of the petition. The opponents based their objections on the expense that would be involved.

86.5 Percent Favor Continuance of Community Forum Next Year

Enthusiastic Satisfaction Expressed With Program Held During The Past Season

A summary of replies to the questionnaire submitted to patrons at the final session of the Newton Community Forum has just been released by Walter M. Taylor, secretary.

97.6% of the replies indicated satisfaction, even enthusiastic satisfaction with the year's program. Several went out of their way to say that of the seven years' programs this had been the outstanding best.

Of the twelve items listed for specific adverse criticism, the question of period and use, or misuse of it, was the only item which drew fire. Suggestions called for eliminating written questions, allowance for questioners to take issue with the speaker, and for panels to avoid love-fests in the interests of "livening up" the meetings. Otherwise patrons evinced much satisfaction with the things, especially with the chairman.

As for the future, 52.0% approved the Steering Committee's decision to "curtail or temporarily suspend" and 38.8% definitely disapproved. Some comments: "Don't be soft and fold up." "If the present committee hasn't the courage to go ahead, get in some new blood."

"I think it is more important than ever that the Forum continue."

"Today and for the next decade we need open discussions of the problems facing us. Willkie says we must propose, not oppose. The proposing must be constructive and our Forum can help."

"Let's keep the Forum going even though on a reduced scale."

There were many expressions of appreciation, even of praise and gratitude.

86.5% favored some Forum activities in 1942-43. In order of popularity among the topics suggested were "Reducible federal non-defense activities," "Planning for the peace," "Civilian co-operation with the war effort," "Do our schools meet pupils' needs?" and "Racial inequality in a democratic world." Least favored, in order of opposing votes, were "U. S. ten years hence" (frequent comment: "Let's win the war first!"), "American health in times of war," "City government in war-time," "The cost of living" and "The liquidation of the middle class." There were many added suggestions.

In evaluating possible reasons for suspension or curtailment of Forum activities, many remarked that no one item alone constituted adequate reason for diminishing activity, but that perhaps the sum of the parts did. "Time and energy requirements upon the Forum's officers and key workers" were regarded as pertinent or adequate reasons for curtailment by 72.2%, "wartime unreliability of speakers" 61.9%, "mounting civilian financial obligations 59.9%."

An added attraction on this occasion will be the reading of a paper on the life of Grace Sturtevant.

Meeting March 26 For Garden Club

The Newtonville Garden Club will hold its monthly meeting Thursday morning, March 26, at the Newtonville library.

Mrs. W. O. Ball will speak on quick flowering annuals for every Garden Purpose.

(Apropos of the Flower Show) MY GARDEN

In the garden of my life Pansies grow for thoughts; Forget-me-nots for friendships bloom.

And Roses of all sorts.

Morning Glories bring the blue Of Heaven down to earth, And Canterbury-bells ring out With happiness and mirth.

The Violets are shy and sweet, The Snowdrops pure and brave, The Bluebells their soft music peal

The path of peace they pave.

The Tulips kiss the Daisies The lilies grace the breeze, Sweet William courts the butterflies

Foxgloves shake hands with bees, Columbine tends the Bleeding Heart,

And Peonies blush with love, The Roses hold the morning dew Which comes from heaven above.

Ah! let me, through life's weary toil Be friendly with the flowers; Who look to God with grateful thanks

For all their sunny hours.

Mrs. ALICE M. FERRY, Newtonville, Mass.

Putnam is a past president of the club and one of its most gifted and outstanding members. Mrs. Putnam will introduce the subject, "What If It Rains?" which was a refreshing and encouraging. From a background rich in experience and activity, Mrs. Putnam was able to bring to her audience a philosophy of life that means happiness and contentment. She stated that each life must have beauty, a beauty that comes from within and that the qualities of humor, gaiety, courage, love and faith radiate that beauty. She read many lovely poems that further emphasized these fundamentals of every day living. She also told many interesting stories of things that had happened during her life that had contributed to this philosophy. When the present seems so complicated and the future so pessimistic the simplicity and sweetness of her message was indeed inspiring.

Newtonville Woman's Club

A large and appreciative audience listened to one of the most inspiring talks of the club year on Tuesday, March 17, when the American Home Committee of the Newtonville Woman's Club presented Mrs. Irving O. Palmer as its guest speaker. Mrs. Palmer, a past president of the club and one of its most gifted and outstanding members, was introduced by Mrs. Walter C. Burt, chairman of the American Home Committee, and her topic, "What If It Rains?" was refreshing and encouraging. From a background rich in experience and activity, Mrs. Palmer was able to bring to her audience a philosophy of life that means happiness and contentment. She stated that each life must have beauty, a beauty that comes from within and that the qualities of humor, gaiety, courage, love and faith radiate that beauty. She read many lovely poems that further emphasized these fundamentals of every day living. She also told many interesting stories of things that had happened during her life that had contributed to this philosophy. When the present seems so complicated and the future so pessimistic the simplicity and sweetness of her message was indeed inspiring.

An attractive exhibition of hooked rugs and painted trays and boxes was on display in the gallery. This work was made by members of the classes sponsored by the American Home Committee. A Silver Coffee and a social hour was held from 1:15 to 2:00 P. M.

Book Review by Auburndale Club

A play reading of "George Washington Slept Here" was given by members of the Auburndale Review Club when they met at the Missionary Home on Hancock st., Tuesday morning as the guests of Mrs. Arthur A. Robinson.

Miss Elizabeth Eaton explained the setting of the play and the interludes which were omitted for lack of time. Newton Fuller, a city dweller, had bought an old house in the country, without the knowledge of his family which included his wife Annabelle, read by Mrs. Franklin E. Leland and his daughter Madge, Mrs. Earl Wood. Not only was the house found to be falling down, but the local realtor, Kimbrey, read by Mrs. Herbert Case, explained that the nearest water supply was on the land of a neighbor, Mr. Prescott, read by Mrs. Edward Kelly.

After spending much more than he planned, the owner is faced with losing his home as he lacks the money to meet a mortgage. A plea to a supposedly rich uncle Stanley, taken by Mrs. Grace Fiske, who has spent a part of each year with them and made a fortune in the hopes of becoming an heir, discloses that the old gentleman has been penniless for several years.

A map of the estate brought to the Fullers by another neighbor, Mrs. Lawrence Allen, discloses that the estate holding the mortgage is really the trespasser as Miss Fuller's gentleman friend, Mrs. Philip Shute, finds by a survey.

The parts of Katie, the cook, and Miss Harrington, guest, were both read by Mrs. Basil Babcock.

In spite of the fact that history showed that not George Washington, but Benedict Arnold, once spent the night at the house, the Fullers were glad to find to have a clear title to the home which they all had come to love.

Prior to the program, the president, Mrs. James G. Pafferson, held a short business session during which a notice was read from the Art Committee, Mrs. John L. Heibek, chairman, giving the names of several Art Galleries where good exhibitions were on display. The Boston ones included Doll and Richards, the Vose Museum, and an unusual collection of miniature furniture.

NEWTON LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

The housing situation in Newton is acute. This was the conclusion reached by the study group of the Newton League of Women Voters at their weekly meeting last Monday. Here are suggestions for improvement: 1. Zoning regulations should be so changed that the owner of a large house should be permitted to convert a small apartment available for rent thus saving the home for the elderly resident and keeping out undesirable persons who might otherwise buy the entire property.

2. Certain sections near business centers should be zoned to permit the building of high grade apartment houses. It is wise to encourage our own young people to stay in the city until the time when they can buy their own homes. This can be done only by making good a portion of the neighborhood where they have been accustomed to live. A great deal of remodeling has been going on to which authorities have closed their eyes; it is now time for them to make it legal and easy for a home owner to share his home. In many cases the rent derived from such a source would enable the owner to paint and fix up his house so that the city would continue to collect taxes on well kept property instead of suffering loss of revenue from that neglected and deserted.

The women of Newton do not want cheap housing or "jerry-built" houses. Neither do they want to drive out our own young people or make it impossible for young executives to live in our desirable city. Newton has the best schools and the best city government in the country. Let us continue to maintain the best citizenry by making available for these fine young people a decent place to live at the price that they can afford to pay.

People, especially children, should use more milk. But it costs too much. Should it really cost as much as it does or are there bottlenecks which could and should be opened up? This and similar questions will be discussed next Monday, March 30 at 2:30 at the Community Room of the Newtonville Library.

The discussion will be under the direction of the committee on Government and Economic Welfare of the Newton League of Women Voters, Mrs. E. B. Millard, chairman. What was done by consumers in Washington will be described by Mrs. J. T. Rueby; Mrs. John L. MacNeil will present the argument for the chain stores; Mrs. Victor C. Studley will give that for the large milk dealers. The position of the Board of Health will be stated by Mrs. T. R. Penpacker while Mrs. Millard will summarize the political situation.

The speaker of the afternoon, Miss Moreland, told of the new problems confronting advertising as a result of the war.

A Rummage Sale will be held at the Chapter House March 27, with the House open on the 26th to receive and mark goods.

League of Women Voters To Meet

When in 1920 the 19th amendment to the Constitution became law those who had worked for it looked at one another and said, "Our work is not just begun; it is now our job to make women worthy of suffrage." This was born the League of Women Voters—an organization whose aim is to increase the number of those who know at least a little about our government and are eager to do what they can to improve it. This work was never more important than now when all its branches are burdened with new and vast responsibilities.

The Leagues, National, State and local, have been asking themselves what is their peculiar share in defense work. They have decided that while as individuals their members do what everybody does—Red Cross, first aid, air raid protection and so on—as Leagues they should try to build up as widely as possible their attitude of thinking and responsible citizenship which we must have if our democracy is to survive.

The National and the State League are preparing simple "broadsides" on national and state problems for distribution in public places. The one on housing, no doubt, been seen by many.

The Newton League is advised to feel a special responsibility for spreading information about local affairs, thus helping to make more intelligent voters. To this end the Department of Local Affairs, under the chairmanship of Mrs. John L. McNeil, has been holding several meetings on Monday afternoons at 2:30 in the Community Room of the Newtonville Library. Come and take part. Men as well as women are welcome.

The League invites all interested in this sort of work to join. Each member, so far as possible, will be assigned some simple task selected under capable advisement and occupying perhaps two hours a week. She will thus have the satisfaction of knowing that she is helping in her small way in the struggle which we face.

Mrs. Walter H. Heath, the President, Box 4455, will welcome calls.

Hospital Aides Course Planned

Visitors to the Newton Hospital who have seen the young aides in their pink uniforms busy around the wards will be interested to know that the Household Nursing Association is now receiving enrollments for another group of hospital aides.

After one month's intensive training at the headquarters of the Association on Newbury st., Boston, the aides are sent to hospitals in the vicinity where they give certain kinds of assistance to the graduate nurses and are paid for their services.

This is a special opportunity for young women to help in the war emergency and, at the same time, find out if they wish to make nursing their life work. Besides a small enrollment fee, the only expense is the cost of the uniforms.

This course must not be confused with the training given the Red Cross Nurses' Aid Corps, which is on a voluntary basis.

It takes about 18 months to train a dog for police work. The New York city police department has six German shepherds assigned to patrol a certain precinct.

Auld Lang Syne
Auld Lang Syne is a Scotch phrase, literally translated as "Old long since," which means "Days long past." It is applied particularly to happy bygone days. It is best known as one of the songs of Robert Burns, who admitted that it was an old song which never appeared in print or manuscript until he took it down from an old man's singing.

Eligible for Unions
It is estimated that there are 28,000,000 employees in the United States who would be eligible for union organizations. Of these about 5,500,000 belong to the C.I.O., 5,000,000 to the American Federation of Labor, 1,000,000 to the railroad brotherhoods and probably 2,000,000 to company unions.

Civil Service Exam For Lifeguards

Ulysses J. Lupien, the Director of Civil Service, announced today that additional lifeguards will be needed for summer work at the various State and municipal beaches in view of the fact that a large number of those on the eligible list qualified as lifeguards and formerly employed during the summer season have been called into the military service or will be called prior to the bathing season.

Applications will be received from both male and female applicants who have reached their 18th birthday, and if the person desires to file for both city and state service, it will be necessary to procure and file two application blanks. If a person is already on the eligible list in the labor service it will only be necessary to have the rating of lifeguard added to his registration, and if he passes the tests conducted by this department he will be placed on the eligible list of lifeguards.

New applicants for these positions should have a better opportunity than usual of being appointed this summer providing they pass the practical and physical tests prescribed by this department.

Lifeguards will be needed in the various cities and towns of the Commonwealth as well as the Metropolitan District Commission beaches at Revere, Nantasket, etc. Applications may be procured and filed at the Civil Service office in the city in which the applicant lives or at the office of the Division of Civil Service, Room 143, State House, Boston.

Practical tests will be conducted throughout the Commonwealth at Boston, Worcester, Springfield and at such other places as the number of candidates warrants during April, May and the first part of June. In order to pass the physical requirements it is essential that a person be in good physical condition and have 20-50 or better in each eye without correction. The practical tests will consist of a 200-yard swim, practical knowledge of resuscitation methods, rescuing a victim, using the chest and hair carries, ability to apply lifts and to break holds of victim and general lifeguard duties.

Those twenty-one years of age or over will be given the first opportunity and if this list is exhausted those eighteen to twenty-one will be considered.

It is advisable that those desiring to be considered for lifeguard positions for the coming season register immediately as arrangements are now being made to conduct the physical examinations in the very near future.

Promoted From Private To Second Lieutenant

Without being required to attend an officers training school, Robert P. Bernard of 26 Cedar st., Newton Centre, a member of the 101st Field Artillery at Camp Edwards, was promoted from private to second lieutenant in the Signal Corps.

He was graduated from Newton High School and Tufts College, and he was employed in the engineering department of the Boston Edison Company. He was inducted March 8, 1941, and was serving as a radio operator in his battery at the time of the promotion.

Forecast by Flowers
It is said that not only the coming weather may be foretold by an acquaintance with flowers, but also the time of day and the time of year. Linnaeus, the naturalist, possessed such a knowledge of them that he needed neither watch, nor calendar, nor weather-glass. He observed that when the flower of the chickweed expanded fully and boldly no rain will follow for some hours or days. If the flowers of the Siberian snowthistle keep open during the night, rain, it is said, is certain to fall the next day.

Cancer Deaths Decline
A 10 per cent decrease in cancer mortality among women 25 to 44 years old in the 10 years through 1940 was reported by the state health department of New York. Basing findings of a general downward trend of deaths from the disease on last year's federal census figures, the department said more fully among older women declined about 3 per cent. An increase of mortality among males over 44 years old was reported, however, with no change in the death rate for those 25-44 years of age.

Warmth of Rooms
A large percentage of American homes are overheated, according to health and heating authorities. It must be admitted that dry, overheated rooms play an important part in producing colds. There is a need for getting used to temperatures of not more than 70 degrees at bodily rest indoors. During the daytime, when members of the family are engaged in active physical effort, the heating may be lowered to 65 degrees.

Short-hand Experts
A sergeant strode into the barracks of Battery B, 82nd Training Battalion, and asked for two short-hand experts. Two unsuspecting rookies volunteered. "Okay," barked the sergeant, "the mess sergeant is short handed. Get going!"

Famous for Diamonds
The district of Golconda, in Hyderabad, India, is popularly famous for its diamonds, although diamonds were never discovered there. Diamonds worth fortunes were taken there from many parts of India and other Asiatic countries to be cut and polished.

Major Revenues
Income, tobacco, alcohol and customs are the four major sources which have yielded the largest share of federal revenues over a 30-year period, 1911-1940.

David S. Reynolds Forty Years With Gas Company

David S. Reynolds of 34 Alderwood rd., Newton Centre, president and chief engineer of the Boston Consolidated Gas Co., was tendered a luncheon at the Hotel Statler, Boston, Monday on his completion of 40 years of service with the company. A review of Reynolds' service with the company was presented by Dana D. Barnum, retired president, and J. J. Quin, sales manager, presented the guest of honor with a desk set.

Reynolds became a draftsman for the old Bay State Gas Company in 1902, on his graduation from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He later became chief draftsman, construction engineer and house heating manager. In January, 1928, he was made chief engineer and in March, 1935, took over the duties of assistant treasurer. He became vice-president in 1940.

Small Oil Burner
Among the many products designed specifically for the needs of the small homeowner is a small sized oil burner, ranging in price from about $100 to $150, installed. It is an automatic vaporizing burner, using No. 3 fuel oil. At high fire the burner uses less than one gallon of oil an hour; between these times a pilot flame burns steadily and uses only about one gallon every 36 hours. The burner is quickly and economically installed because a combustion chamber is part of the unit. Removable, though, it can handle up to six rooms—no more.

'When in Rome'
When you are in Rome, try to do as the Romans do. In medieval times Saturday was considered a fast day in Rome. But in Milan it was a festival. Saint Austin, a frequent traveler between the two cities, asked Saint Ambrose exactly how to act in both cases. Saint Ambrose replied: "When I am among the Romans, I fast as the Romans do; when I am at Milan I do not fast. Likewise you, wherever you be, observe the custom of the place if you would neither give offense to others nor take offense from them."

Ancient Superstitions
People used to carry horse chestnuts in their pockets as a sure cure for rheumatism and that many old-timers wore gold earrings to improve weak eyes. This carrying custom was a popular one, particularly among sailors, folk up until comparatively recent times.

Had Gold Not Nearly Starved
According to mythology, King Midas nearly starved to death because everything he touched, including food, turned to gold. He was "cured" by bathing in the Pactolus river, in Phrygia, Central Asia Minor, where, even today, there are deposits of gold and the sands yield grains of the precious metal.

Louis Pasteur
Louis Pasteur, distinguished French scientist who discovered a cure for hydrophobia, also discovered a cure for the disease of silk worms, thereby saving the silk industry millions of dollars annually.

Given Sentence For Coat Thefts

Two concurrent sentences of six months in the House of Correction were imposed in the Middlesex Superior Court today by Judge Lewis Goldberg on William C. Karalekas, Longfellow rd., Weylesley, on charges of stealing two coats from the Chestnut Hill School on Jan. 29.

After about 15 minutes' deliberation, Karalekas was found guilty on two counts of larceny by a jury yesterday afternoon and the case was continued until this morning for sentence.

The defendant was accused of having entered the Chestnut Hill School on Hammond st. after receiving permission to use the telephone, snatching a fur coat valued at $200 and a cloth coat costing $35 and escaping with the loot in an auto.

Lieut. Daniel E. Crowley and Sergeant Richard L. Cannon, who arrested the defendant after several weeks of painstaking detective work, testified against him yesterday, as did also the victims of the thefts.

The case came before the Superior Court on appeal from the Newton District Court, where a sentence of a year had been imposed by Judge Donald E. Mayberry for the theft of the fur of the other garment.

The fur coat was owned by Mrs. Robert Owen, principal of the school, and the other coat by her secretary, Miss Anne Cummings.

Patrolman O'Neil Joins Navy As An Ensign

Patrolman George W. O'Neil, a member of the Newton Police Department for the past two years, has obtained a leave of absence to join the Navy as an ensign.

He is the third member of the Newton force to join the armed services. Patrolman Edward H. Key was inducted with the National Guard as a captain last year and Patrolman Warren Springer was inducted recently by the Selective Service board.

Patrolman O'Neil will enter the Naval Service on Friday of this week. He is married and resides at 783 Watertown st., West Newton. Before joining the police force, he was a bus driver for the Middlesex & Boston.

Newton Pupils In 3-Act Comedy

The presentation of the three-act comedy, "The Wishing Well," by the pupils of St. Bernard's High and Grammar schools of West Newton was attended by 600 persons at the Newton Catholic Club House last night.

Sister Ellen St. Joseph and Sister Francesca directed the play and Sister Therese Marie was in charge of the music. Joan M. Lawless took the part of Sir Terrence Fitzpatrick O'Ready and other leading roles were taken by Margaret McKenna, Marjorie Joyce, Mildred McManus, Gertrude Breen, Isabel Murphy, Ruth McCaron, Ellen Sowkow, Gloria Beckert and Mary Devane.

Supporting roles were taken by pupils of the high and grammar schools.

Japanese Beetles
July is a month when home gardeners must not neglect spraying. To control Japanese beetles a good coating, preferably of arsenate of lead, is essential. However, if you do not like the looks of this white material use rotenone spray, but be careful. In fact, anything that gives the foliage a heavy coating of white, preferably, such as alum or lime, is a good repellent. Arsenate of lead not only repels but also acts as stomach poison and kills the beetles. Arsenate of lead is a poison which must be kept out of the reach of children and other irresponsible persons.

Camouflage Ancient
Camouflage is a very old method of warfare, and has probably been used by every army in history. Even Shakespeare tells of the armies of Macbeth, and how they mounted boughs of Birnam wood on their helmets to conceal them in the trees. Native warriors in Africa today carry branches of trees to hide them while they steal upon their foes. But nature was the first to develop camouflage extensively. Insects have markings on their wings and bodies which make them practically invisible against twigs, leaves and flowers where they thrive best.

False Teeth Ancient
False teeth date far back into Asiatic civilization. Even the Babylonians of the Fifth century before Christ are believed by some authorities to have used white pebbles strung on copper wire. These weren't very utilitarian but looked much better than the customary gap. The Ceylonese were using bits of sea shell more than 500 years ago, and the Japanese of 300 years ago were wont to carve a sea shell to resemble uppers and lowers.

Not Interested
Elias Howe, who invented and patented the sewing machine, could find no sale at home or abroad for either his invention or for the patent until he, himself, organized a company to manufacture the sewing machine.

Church Will Hold Day of Prayer

A quiet day will be held at St. John's Episcopal Church from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. on Sunday, March 22nd. The Reverend Charles O. Farrar, Rector of St. Paul's Church, Newton Highlands, will conduct this period of prayer and meditation. This Lenten devotional evening is planned to give everyone the opportunity to seek God's power and presence in a materialistic world.

Those not planning to attend the whole time are asked to come at 5:30 or at 7:30. A supper will be served in the Parish House at 6:30, the cost of which is only 25c. Those expecting to be present at supper are asked to send a postcard telling how many to expect to the Rector, 311 Lowell ave., Newtonville. The public is cordially invited to attend.

CAMP ZAKOLO NOTES

Camp Zakolo, Harrison, Maine, announced today to its many Newton friends that the Zakolo model was awarded a Bronze Medal at the Boston Flower show at Mechanics Building. The model indicates the studies and efforts of the boys and staff for the beautification and conservation of their campus and nearby forest lands. It was accepted by the Massachusetts Horticultural Society for display at the Flower Show.

This summer further instructions in farming, gardening and conservation will be given to the campers by especially trained men in these timely essential subjects.

THE FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

In all Christian Science churches, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, a Lesson-Sermon will be read Sunday, March 22, on the subject of: "Matter."

The Golden Text will be: "The fashion of this world passeth away" (I Corinthians 7:31). Bible selections will include the following passage from II Peter 3:10-13: "But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. . . . Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness."

One of the passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, included in the Lesson-Sermon, reads as follows: "Mortal error will vanish in a moral reformation, and will be gone, and will be gone until all error of belief yield to understanding. Belief is changeable, but spiritual understanding is changeless" (P. 96).

Done His Bit Already
A Pittsburgh railroad was eager to sign up for one year's military training but the draft board deferred him as already having done his bit—when they discovered he had 12 children.

Farmer's Best Friend
The little ground-robin, sometimes called the cheewink, or towhee, is said to be one of the farmer's best friends because it lives almost exclusively on potato bugs and hairy caterpillars.

Ears for Zeos
Bars for zeos, jails, bank vaults are of steel, high in carbon and manganese content, to make them strong, hard, unbreakable, and impossible to cut with ordinary instruments.

Light Cigarette With Steam
It is possible to light a cigarette with steam. This was demonstrated by Dr. Andrade of the Royal Institution of London, who produced high pressure steam hot enough to set fire to a match or a cigarette.

Drink Discovery
African natives discovered the kola drink when they noticed that a puddle of water was converted into a satisfying beverage after kola nuts had dropped into it after a rain.

Automotive Leather
Into the production of every 1,000,000 automobiles goes 1,500,000 square feet of leather for making upholstery and hide goods. This leather comes from 30,000 head of cattle.

Washing Silk Lamp Shades
Silk lamp shades may be washed with warm soapuds by dissolving the soap flakes thoroughly before adding them to the water and using a very soft brush to apply the suds to the shades.

Abram Changed to Abraham
The original name of Abraham, founder of the Hebrew nation, was Abram. It was changed to Abraham as a tribute to his greatness, as the word Abraham means "father of a great nation."

Turkey
Turkey is the name first applied to the guinea cock with which the American bird was identified, and which was imported into Europe from Africa through Turkey.

Automotive Hint
Badly worn automobile engine cylinders, pistons or rings, should be reground or replaced. It is much cheaper to do this than constantly to replace the oil burned as a result of this condition.

Plastic Paints Flexible
Most plastic paints can be applied to any surface, either new or old, to which paint or varnish will adhere. This type of paint is highly flexible and, properly applied, should not flake or peel.

Make Your Money Work for Victory

Comments received from time to time by Daniel Doherty, State Administrator of Defense Bonds and Stamps, as well as by John W. Gleavy, Acting Postmaster of Boston, indicate that people are purchasing United States Defense Savings Bonds and Stamps with the money they are saving for the war effort.

The answer of many of these questions is contained in a folder recently released to show how your money is being spent for the Defense of America.

For example, a 10c Defense Stamp will purchase 5 cartridges, 45 calibre.

A 25c Defense Stamp will buy 1 dozen bandages or a soldier's mess kit; $2.00 will purchase one blanket and $5.00 will buy two leg

31st Annual Parents' Night

Last Saturday evening at the Methodist Church, Newton Centre, Troop 5 of Norumbega Council Boy Scouts held their thirty-first annual parents' night banquet. The occasion was attended by over 150 boys, parents and their friends and the program was enjoyed by all.

The local troop is the oldest in Norumbega Council, dating its organization back to within a month of the date when the Boy Scout movement was chartered by Congress in March 1910. It has held its meetings at the Newton Playhouse House for a good many years and many of the boys who once were members of the troop have later served as Scoutmaster and Committee members with great enthusiasm and pride.

Ray F. Blaisdell, Principal of the John W. Weeks Jr. High School, has been for the last three years chairman of the Troop 5 Committee and in this capacity was host and toastmaster during the evening. Among those seated at the head table at the annual supper were Thomas McGowan, Scout Executive of Norumbega Council and his assistant Bill Olds; Scoutmaster Jim Laughton and his assistants Jim Blackall, Frank Downs and Bunny Paul, also the Senior Patrol Leader, Francis Newton and Scribe, Fred Fowler. Also seated at the head table was Bob Austin, Commissioner of Sachem District; Wendell R. Banchman, Chairman of the 27 Cub Scout Organization in Oak Hill; Dr. J. C. Wright, Pastor of the Newton Centre Methodist Church; William H. Halliday, President of Norumbega Council in 1927; Ralph Emery, a former Scoutmaster of Troop 5 and for many years chairman of Advancement Committee of the Council, and two former Scoutmasters of Troop 5, Marshall Stone and Everett Varney.

Community singing was led by Herbert Downs. Following this Ralph Emery gave a most interesting talk on the "History of Troop 5." He called attention to a few of the members who have kept up an active interest in scouting over a number of years. The group cited were Worthing West, Henry Lambert and Ralph Emery, 15 yr. veterans; Bob Austin, 11 yr. veterans; Joe Mandile, 10 yrs.; Bunney Paul and L. R. Collins, 8 yrs. and Jim Laughton 6 yr. veteran. Mr. Emery told of the cabin the troop once owned in Dover which was sold when the Nobscot Reservation was acquired. A week before the new Troop 5 cabin was to be dedicated in March, there was a fire and the cabin was completely leveled this cabin. However 2 years later in Oct. 1932 a new cabin arose and was appropriately dedicated. Along in that year George K. Crossbie was Scoutmaster and the boys missed a weekend with him at Nobscot. Mr. Emery spoke of the eight boys from Troop 5 that attended the Washington Jamboree and the four or five who took in the Jamboree in Holland and England.

Following the supper, while the tables were being cleared, the boys, the parents adjourned to the reception room to hear an interesting round table discussion on "What is expected of the boy and the parent in the scouting program and what part is expected of scoutmasters." The speakers were Tom McGowan, Scout Executive, presented the viewpoint that scouting as a character building organization made of its activities a game—it offered the boy interests that he himself occupied his time and talents and made him more self-reliant and manly. The boy, through progressive training, soon finds he has acquired practical and useful knowledge that helps him in whatever work he later undertakes. He is prepared, experienced, disciplined.

Henry S. C. Cummings, Secretary of the Troop 5 committee, outlined how the parents should co-operate if the scouting movement is to have its greatest success. He stressed the fact that the parent must give his best to his children if he hoped the best would be developed in them. Specifically, he urged parent-backing, appreciation and attention to advancement, regularity of attendance, enthusiasm for the program, support to the camping phase of scouting at Nobscot, and co-operation in the matter of transportation.

John Bierer, head of the Safety Committee for Newton, spoke of the training being given to Scouters to make them efficient couriers and stretcher bearers. He urged a special effort to guard against spreading rumors. These were days, he said, where every individual has an important part to play in the defense of our country and our homes and felt sure scouting would assume its full share.

A feature of the evening was the program that followed when the boys in Troop 5 divided into six groups and then in turn, signalled, campers safety, rope knots and judging. Parents were then examined and prizes offered for those who remembered most. Following this everyone gathered again in the reception room for a Court of Honor and Induction Ceremony.

William H. Halliday awarded a fifteen year veterans badge to Ralph B. Emery. Jim Blaisdell presented campers badges to the eight boys who attended the winter camporee and who earned an A rating. The boys were: Bobbie Newton, Peter Cummings, Freddie Anderson, John Holland, Alan Newton, Rodney Davis, Paul Condon and Donald Smith. Bunny Paul awarded the patrol compass to the Panther Patrol, Tom McGowan then presented the Troop charter to Ray F. Blaisdell and Troop committee cards to Fred Fowler, Bob Austin, Henry Cummings, Dr. Francis C. Newton, Worthing L. West, L. R. Collins and to Scoutmasters Jim Laughton, Jim Blackall and Bunny Paul.

Three boys were accepted into the Troop with the candlelight ceremony under the direction of the Scoutmaster Jim Laughton.

"The Birth and Growth of the U. S. O." Discussed at Rotary Club Meeting

Kenneth S. Dale, general secretary of the Newton Y. M. C. A., in addressing the Newton Rotary Club at its weekly meeting at Brae Burn on Monday, March 16th, discussed "The Birth and Growth of the U. S. O."

The letters U. S. O. stand for United Service Organizations, a non-profit corporation which brings together six national agencies in a common program of service for men in uniform and in defense industries. These agencies are the Young Men's Christian Association, the National Catholic Community Service, the Salvation Army, the Young Women's Christian Association, the Jewish Welfare Board, and the National Travelers Aid Association.

Who will U. S. O. serve? Soldiers, sailors, marines and defense workers, young women as well as men in camps, bases and manufacturing areas where there are no adequate resources in nearby communities for recreational and welfare activities.

Soon after the Selective Service Act became operative, it was evident that while the government could conduct military and naval work within the camps and bases, there was great need for similar work in areas near camps and defense centers which could serve the youth while they were off duty. This promptly became the function of the private agencies.

The government, however, has agreed to build and equip 217 club houses which the U. S. O. will staff, supervise and operate. 173 of these government built club houses are now completed and in operation. The U. S. O. is operating in 240 other rentals making a total of 413 U. S. O. club houses now available. Others will be added as needs increase. The present professional staff of the U. S. O. numbers 1176 persons. The basic requirements for personnel include college education and five years of successful experience in the agency for which they work.

In its great campaign last year for ten million dollars, the U. S. O. through the generosity of American citizens raised nearly fourteen million dollars, an over-subscription of better than 35%.

The campaign which will start in May has for its goal a total of thirty-two million dollars to finance the increased operations during the next year.

"Camp Shows, Inc." which provides entertainment for service men in camps and naval stations, became an affiliate of the U. S. O. about a month ago under the presidency of Eddie Dowling. It receives its financial support from the U. S. O. Camp Shows, Inc., has greatly expanded its activities during the past two months. Last month it launched fifteen new events to provide entertainment for a new circuit. More than one thousand actors will take part in the expanded program, which is to cover 114 Army camps and naval bases. Shows on the two circuits which now exist will provide entertainment for 40,000 soldiers and sailors nightly.

Among the plays on tour are companies playing "Out of the Frying Pan" and "Junior Miss," current Broadway hits. The managers and authors have waived all royalties. The performers are paid, however, but at lower rates than they would receive for commercial productions.

The U. S. O. mobile service committee has been established to foster the recreation and comfort of large and small troop units detached on duty. A transit service provide station service for soldiers and sailors at all important transportation centers.

The work of the U. S. O., combining as it does groups representing the three basic religious organizations of the country, is in itself a healthful indication of the strength of democracy.

"The Lady Killer"
At Marine Hospital

The Lamplighters, Newton Recreation Department Dramatic Club of Newton Upper Falls, presented "The Lady Killer" to an audience of 200 at the Marine Hospital in Brighton Wednesday evening.

A group of monologues including "Noah's Ark" and "The King's Sturgeon," was presented by Wesley Dynes between the acts. Mrs. Verna Dynes was director of the play and the cast included James Stuart, Fredrick Jackson, Polly Nichols and Helen Kivinski. Guests included Mrs. Louis H. Marshall, chairman of the Newton Recreation Commission; Mrs. Theodore H. Lockwood, F. Ewing Wilson, recreation commissioner, and Mrs. Wilson, and Mrs. Ragna Hovgaard, director of neighborhood centers for the Recreation Department. Arrangements for the presentation were made with Miss Helen Connelly of the hospital staff.

The production staff included Carl Brennan, Carl Schontag, John Sammarco, Stella Rockland, Peggy Jackson, Polly Nichols and Helen Kivinski. Guests included Mrs. Louis H. Marshall, chairman of the Newton Recreation Commission; Mrs. Theodore H. Lockwood, F. Ewing Wilson, recreation commissioner, and Mrs. Wilson, and Mrs. Ragna Hovgaard, director of neighborhood centers for the Recreation Department. Arrangements for the presentation were made with Miss Helen Connelly of the hospital staff.

"Borrowed Timers"

Near Ellensburg, Wash., a group of 15 people live, who have been "given up" by doctors, and they call themselves "Borrowed Timers." Many of them, according to their doctors, should have died from one to four years ago. Since 1936, when the colony was started, not one has died. They live on a 40-acre farm and are self-supporting. The idea originated with Guyer D. Thomas, who is now president of the colony.

Calling All Cities

When an acute parking problem presented itself in Renton, near Seattle, it was solved by civic cooperation. The influx of workers constructing a large aviation plant taxed parking facilities so badly a method to provide free parking was necessary. Under the plan property owners lend the city vacant lots, which the city cleans up, gives a light gravel surface, and opens to public parking.

"Watered Meat"

What is "watered" meat? It is meat that has been filled with salt water, in order to give it increased weight. The water is pumped deep into the tissues of the meat by means of a hypodermic syringe, giving the cut a full juicy appearance. A skillful meat "pumper" can increase the weight by as much as 80 per cent, which means that profits will rise proportionately. Tons of watered brisket, tongue and ham are sold across butcher counters annually, defrauding housewives of millions of dollars.

Large Canal

The New York state barge canal is a system of waterways based on the improvement and enlargement of four previously existing canals—the Erie, the Champlain, the Oswego and the Cayuga-Seneca canals. The Barge canal improvement involved approximately 440 miles of improvement or new construction, and the canalization of 250 miles of intervening lakes of adjoining rivers, so that the resulting state waterway system amounts to over 700 miles.

Waste Material Drive For National Defense

Street Commissioner Haughey, City Salvage Director, in Charge

City Expects To Receive Gross Income of $20,000 From Waste Paper Now Being Baled at Incinerator

An intensive drive to gather all available waste material for national defense will be launched in Newton next week under the direction of Street Commissioner John D. Haughey, salvage director for the city.

In addition to calling upon all residents to search their cellars and attics for waste paper, metal, rubber and rags, he is preparing to turn in all city property of that nature. About 150 cast iron gas light poles which are no longer in use will be contributed to the metal salvage heaps.

Aside from the salvage drive to be started next week, the city has been realizing a profit of about $400 a week from a paper baling enterprise that was undertaken a year ago by Commissioner Haughey.

30 Tons A Week

More than 30 tons of mixed papers are baled at the incinerator each week and are being sold at $14 a ton, the price being set by the O. P. A. More than $20,000 is expected to be the gross income from the sale of the material this year. Deduct from this the sum of $4500 for the salaries of three men engaged in the work and there is left a clear profit of more than $15,500.

As for the paper baling machine, not only did it pay for itself in the first few months of operation, but the city had an offer to sell it at a profit soon after it was acquired. Today it is practically impossible to buy such a machine, in view of the great demand and because of war production priorities.

The combustible materials after being collected by the Street Department truck crews are delivered to the incinerator on Elliot st., Newton Highlands. There it is deposited in a large storage bin. Before the baling project was started, the material was scooped up in a mechanical bucket and deposited in the charging hopper, from which it was automatically fed to the furnace. Now, however, it is deposited by the bucket on the floor and sorted by the men assigned to the task of baling. The tin cans and other matter not suitable for baling are removed and the remainder is cast into a concrete pit that contains the baling apparatus. The paper is then compressed by the walls of the baling machine and securely wired by the men before the bales are removed. The concern which purchases the material from the city makes daily trips to the incinerator to collect the bales.

Selectees Given Farewell Party

34 Men Inducted Into Service From Newton

Newton completed its conscription quota for the month of March Tuesday when a group of 34 selectees were sent out by Local Board 114 to be inducted into the Army.

The men were greeted by Mayor Paul M. Goddard when they reported at City Hall. Each selectee received a toilet kit from the Committee on Service to Newton Service Men and a farewell letter from the mayor. The kits were distributed under the direction of Roy S. Edwards, chairman of the committee.

The Newton Chapter of the American Red Cross set up a canteen in the building and served coffee and doughnuts to the men. They were given their final instructions by A. Leslie Harwood, chairman, and James Walsh, member of the board.

Rotary Club Has Fine Lecture

The Rotary Club meeting at Brae Burn Country Club on March 23rd was a very delightful affair. A friend of Joe Limric's, Dr. Martinus James of the Baptist Church in Norwood, Mass., gave a most interesting and humorous talk entitled "Windjammer Days."

It was a very picturesque tale of forty-two years of adventure in square riggers, steamships, airplanes, as well as other means of transportation. Dr. James was born into an aristocratic family in Holland, and his brother is the Pastor of the famous "Church of the Pilgrims" in Delftshaven. The speaker has been everything from a longshoreman to a secret agent for the United States. One important thing that he said was that it is not what we say, whether we are minister or layman, but what we do to help humanity. We are confident that Dr. James' audiences stay awake during his talks.

We wish to mention that it was good to see Harry Bascom at the meeting. The nominating committee for next year's directors was elected and consists of Frank Richardson, chairman, and John Cahill, Al Waugh, George Edwards, and Lou Chandler as additional members.

Hospital "Benefit Shop" Appeals To Newton Residents For Support

Asks Donations of Clothing, Furniture, Etc., to Provide Funds For Hospital Necessities

The Newton Benefit Hospital Aid Association, through its publicity chairman, Mrs. C. I. Drew of Auburndale, has issued the following appeal to citizens of Newton for greater co-operation in support of its "Benefit Shop," maintained for sixteen years in Newtonville and now located at 795 Washington st., opposite the railroad station.

Do you, the residents of Newton, know that you can help make your hospital more up-to-date and of greater use in the community by disposing of the outgrown clothing of all members of your family, of odd pieces of china and glass, bric-a-brac, and furniture, carpets, rugs and bedding, which you are replacing with new?

Do you know that in whatever part of Newton your live, some of your neighbors are giving their time once or twice a month?

The Benefit Shop is appropriately named. Its results are three-fold. You personally are benefitted by having an outlet for whatever you no longer need. The purchaser is benefitted by securing goods of superior quality to what he otherwise would be able to get. Finally, all profits from the shop are used by the Hospital Aid Association for the purchase of such equipment as the hospital needs, yet is not included in their budget.

Your donations will be called for once a week by a truck manned by hospital employees. This collection is always made on Wednesday mornings, and a call for the same, must be made to Mrs. Raymond Perkins, Big 8123 by Tuesday noon. "Hoarding Hurts," is the motto of the Association.

The business manager of the shop is Mrs. Francis H. Williams of 11 Glenwood ave., Newtonville. The other officers are Mrs. D. Brewer Eddy and Mrs. Ralph Conant, Executive chairmen; Mrs. Charles Bartlett, secretary; Mrs. Dana Dutch, chairman of the Advisory Committee and Mrs. Ernest Drew, Press. As this is an auxil-

Favor Program Designed to Stimulate Instruction in Instrumental Music

School Committee Thereby Hopes To Create Reservoir Of Young Musicians To Supply School Bands

The adoption of a program designed to stimulate instruction in instrumental music in the Newton public schools and thereby create a reservoir of young musicians to supply the school bands with material was authorized by the School Committee Monday night.

Under the plan, laid before the board by Supervisor of Music Remley, a firm that deals in musical instruments is to be given authority to conduct aptitude tests to the young prospective musicians and to endeavor to sell instruments to the pupils found fitted for the purpose.

Supervisor Remley read a letter which he prepared to be sent to parents, informing them of the approximate prices of the instruments and conditions under which they may be purchased. The letter also stated that the parents need not purchase the instruments from the firm selected by the School Department, but may obtain them from any source they choose.

Builder of Morale

At the suggestion of members of the board, he added notations to give the parents complete information concerning the plan. Parents are to be informed that instruments may be returned to the concern after 90 days' use. In that event, a charge of $10 should be made as rental for instruments costing up to $60 and $15 for those costing more than $60.

Junior Typing Out

The board also voted to abolish the teaching of typewriting in the ninth grades in junior high schools and to substitute penmanship, mathematics and "personality."

The decision to eliminate typewriting from the ninth grade curricula was made after an investigation by Frances Forgie of the division of research and guidance. She quoted many authorities on the matter, including Professor Nichols of Harvard University, nationally known for his work and writings on commercial education. Her report in part was as follows:

Taught In Few Schools

"Professor Nichols believes that typewriting has no place in ninth grade, neither for personal use nor for vocational purposes. He considers it a self-evident truth that needs no substantiating study."

"He does not believe in exploratory courses in typewriting and says that a good test in fundamentals is a better predictor of success in clerical work than a year of typewriting."

Approximately 5300 Volunteers Will Guard City on March 31

Complete Mobilization of Civilian Air Raid Defenses Planned—Time of Blackout Secret

Newton's part in the blackout March 31 ordered by the Massachusetts Committee on Public Safety and which includes about fifty communities in Eastern Massachusetts will involve the services of approximately 5300 volunteers. Apart from some 4500 air raid wardens, 200 auxiliary firemen, 400 auxiliary policemen, the 21 Red Cross ambulance units and the 7 medical posts fully manned will require the services of 190 doctors, nurses, drivers, stretcher bearers and other assistants.

As this is to be a complete mobilization of civilian air raid defenses the city services and public utilities will be in emergency operation as well, with demolition and repair crews, rescue parties, water department and sewer department crews, etc., all at their posts, with equipment manned. The Public Utilities, gas, electric and telephone, will be represented at the Report Center and in touch with their repair crews.

The first public signal of the blackout, some undisclosed time after 8:30 p. m., will be the extinguishing of the electric street lights. Householders should put out all lights except in rooms previously prepared.

Prior to this happening there will be a private ARP warning by telephone to mobilize all services. These will include wardens, messengers and couriers, auxiliary firemen and police forces, first aid stations, mobile first aid units, ambulances, Red Cross units, Report Center staff, decontamination units, repair, rescue and utility crews and all other services and equipment.

When the street lights are extinguished to give the first public warning of the blackout, all motor traffic will be stopped by police and auxiliary police, but air raid defense personnel and equipment automobiles will be permitted to proceed with head lights on at not more than ten miles per hour.

After an interval, long or short, there will be the warning signal as if enemy action were close by, with the sounding of air raid sirens, police and fire department sirens and bells, factory whistles blown or rung rapidly for three minutes. At this warning complete blackout must be in effect; all vehicular traffic with the stopped, and all pedestrians requested to go indoors at once.

"The signal for a blackout shall be the air raid alarm or the extinguishment of street lights whichever occurs first" says the Governor's proclamation.

If any person refuses the request of a warden to extinguish any light visible from the outside this violation will be reported and a regular Police Department car will be sent immediately. Willful violators will be prosecuted.

Industries working on defense contracts will continue operation and not shut down of blackout. Fire and police protection and emergency medical and utility services will not be interfered with except that such traffic should proceed with caution.

During the blackout the public should keep off the streets and it is recommended that they stay at home, with the further suggestion that they have their doors locked and particularly that pets, especially dogs, be kept in the house during the blackout. Don't telephone; don't use flashlights in the open; don't smoke or light matches out of doors and don't ask for exceptions in your special case—there are over sixty thousand other people in Newton.

The all-clear signal on sirens or bells will consist of slow blasts or slow tolling of bells for one minute. Street lights will be turned on and the air raid is over.

Mayor Goddard Approves An Increase of $4500 For Library

Mayor Paul M. Goddard has approved an increase of about $4500 in the budget of the Newton Library Department which includes salary increases of personnel. Last year the appropriation was $96,757.75. The sum which the trustees of the library requested this year was $101,213.94. The amount approved by Mayor Goddard is $101,213.94.

Another recommendation made by the trustees was that the salary of the librarian be increased to $4500 but the mayor decided that it remain at $4100. Among the salary increases are that of the children's librarian from $1980 to $2000; the head cataloger from $1560 to $1620, the head of the branch department from $1620 to $1680, the executive secretary from $1560 to $1620, the school's librarian from $1440 to $1500.

Other increases included in the budget are the salaries of branch librarians which totalled $11,480 last year to $11,860; senior assistants from $14,120 to $14,440; junior assistants, $7740 to $8880 and part time assistants from $8767 to $8769.64.

Other expenses increased in the budget were as follows: office expenses, $4400 to $4500; maintenance of automobiles, $2510 to $2630; care of buildings, full time pay, from $8340 to $9300; books and periodicals, $17,000 to $17,350.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST
"Reality" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon Sunday, March 29, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

The Golden Text will be: "A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good" (Luke 6:45). Other Bible citations include: "For what man knoweth the things of man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God. Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God" (1 Corinthians 2:11, 12).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Keys to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "When understanding changes the standpoints of life and intelligence from a material to a spiritual basis, the control of Soul over sense, and we shall perceive Christianity or Truth in its divine Principle" (p. 322).

MORE HOMES NEEDED

At a meeting in Taunton on March 24th the 150 Co-operative Bank officers and directors present were addressed by Edward J. MacEwan, Federal Chairman and Director of Homes Registration in the Quincy-South Shore Defense Area. Mr. MacEwan said in part: "Thousands of summer homes and scores and perhaps hundreds of summer hotels and boarding houses along the South Shore must be utilized for housing defense workers and members of our armed forces stationed at defense plants and bases in this area."

Director MacEwan at the same time called upon all owners of large houses which are furnished but occupied only four or five months a year to list these houses with the Homes Registration Office in Quincy. These houses on large estates can probably be rented to Army and Navy officers and their wives on a sort of a co-operative basis. This is particularly true with houses on large estates which have many guest rooms, each with a private bath. Owners of such houses would be making a real contribution to our national war effort and giving those men an opportunity to enjoy themselves while on duty in this country. Many of these houses will be unoccupied for the balance

Congressman Eliot Opposes Further Appropriation For Dies Committee

Congressman Thomas H. Eliot, opposing an additional appropriation for the Dies Committee, this week accused the Dies Committee of attempting to whitewash the Ku Klux Klan. Eliot has received the latest number of "The Fiery Cross," the Ku Klux Klan's official organ, in which the Imperial Wizard of the Klan called upon the entire membership to support the Dies Committee.

In a letter to Chairman Cochran of the Accounts Committee, which controls the Dies Committee appropriation, Eliot pointed out that the Klan support for the Dies Committee was given a few hours after the Imperial Wizard of the Klan consulted with the Dies Committee.

Congressman Eliot's letter to Mr. Cochran is as follows:

"In considering the request of the Dies Committee for new appropriations, I am sure you will take into account the curious relationship between that Committee and the Ku Klux Klan.

"On January 26, 1942 the Chairman of the Dies Committee announced that his committee would investigate the Klan. This news pleased many of us who feel that the Ku Klux Klan, preaching racial hatred and religious bigotry, is very decidedly Un-American.

"Now, however, it appears that the whole idea of such an investigation was suggested by the 'Imperial Wizard' of the Ku Klux Klan itself. He appeared voluntarily before the Dies Committee on January 26. Within a few hours, two things happened:

(1) Mr. Dies announced an impending 'investigation' of the Klan.

(2) The 'Imperial Wizard' dispatched a message to all the 'King Kleaders' ordering them to support the resolution extending the life of the Dies Committee.

"Was this just a coincidence? Or was it agreed between the Chairman of the Dies Committee and the 'Imperial Wizard' of the Ku Klux Klan that the promised 'investigation' would really just whitewash the Klan?

"You have perhaps seen the February 1942 number of 'The Fiery Cross,' the Klan's official organ. A large part of that paper is devoted to praising the Dies Committee. There are also, of course, articles attacking parochial schools, announcements of 'Klonections,' and the like.

"The Ku Klux Klan is a dangerous Un-American organization. It should be investigated and exposed. But we should not appropriate a penny to any Committee which intends to investigate the Klan only for the purpose of whitewashing it."

Contractors Hold Meeting

A Housing Guild meeting was sponsored last Thursday evening by the Peck Lumber Co., Cady Peck Prop., at which a number of local contractors attended. The meeting was conducted by L. E. Cushman, Merchandising Representative for Johns-Manville and Angus Mackay their local sales representative.

During his talk Mr. Cushman called attention to the many homes that were badly in need of maintenance repair, others that needed modern improvements, and also the many homes that should be insulated, this being a patriotic duty, in that it would help alleviate the fuel shortage, as well as making the homes economical to heat and more comfortable to live in.

Due to restrictions on new construction, other than for defense purposes there will be a tremendous amount of home remodeling this year, but the home owner seems to have the impression that neither materials, labor or financing is available for this necessary remodeling work.

Mr. Peck called attention to the fact that there are plenty of building materials of a non-critical nature available also contractors for their application, and ample financing were needed.

Mr. Mackay urged the purchase of Defense Bonds but requested that home owners do not neglect to keep their homes in up-to-date repair, while materials, labor and financing were available.

A motion picture took those present on a visit to the modern Johns-Manville plant in Jarratt, Va., where insulating board is manufactured, and they were shown how a tree became a decorative material which is being widely used on walls and ceilings in the modernizing of homes.

Kiwanis Activities

A joint meeting of the Arlington and Newton Kiwanis Clubs was held at the Newtonville Women's Club Tuesday, March 24th. There were sixteen Arlington Kiwanians and thirty-seven Newton Kiwanians present.

The guest speaker was Mr. Joseph McGee, who has done business in the Orient for 25 years and is now a resident of Newton Centre.

In telling of his experiences and knowledge of how the Japanese people have worked, he states that in 1916 the Japanese industrial factories were mediocre, but in recent years they have built large textile and industrial factories all over the country which are, if anything, more up to date than our factories.

He warns us not to fool ourselves in thinking that the Japanese are not well equipped and supplied. He claims through his own knowledge of doing business with them that they are a very intelligent race and are most clever inventors. They claim they could supply the world with textile and cotton goods, provided they would buy from them, they are so well equipped. He claims that they think very little of us as a country and laugh at some of the things that our Government does.

He also states that at the present time they can and have produced better looms and textile machinery than this country. He says the only one way to beat them is to cut out the foolishness in government and also forget about a 40-hour week, and get down to business. He says that the Japanese and the Germans do not know what a 40-hour week is, never having heard of one.

The meeting next week will be with the Brookline Kiwanis Club at the Hotel Beaconsfield, Brookline.

Exhibition of Defense Posters

Defense posters submitted by Newton school pupils will be on display at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts on April 14 and at the annual meeting of the Massachusetts Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. H. Clayton Pearson, president of the Federation, connected the meeting and reports were submitted by chairmen of committees. For the Health Seals committee, Miss Margaret Ball, chairman, announced that the goal of $7,000 was nearly reached and hoped that by the time the books were closed on March 31 the remainder will be received.

Mrs. Arthur Shannon, in her report for the education committee, told of the splendid facilities available to Newton residents at playgrounds, skating rinks and swimming pools. For the legislation committee, Mrs. Albert Schaller urged clubwomen to acquaint themselves with the text of the Workingman's Compensation Insurance Bill and of the Mothers' health laws.

Mrs. Ernest Hale announced a music festival will be held by the State Federation on Wednesday, April 8, at the Copley Plaza Hotel, Boston.

The need for additional cod liver oil for Newton children was cited by Mrs. Patrick Duncan in her report for the public health committee. She urged clubs not already contributing to include this philanthropy in their budgets.

Mrs. Pearson announced a "Pep Talk" for the coming sale for the blind will be held at 10:30 a. m., April 17, at the Newton Centre Woman's Club. The sale will be on April 29, 30 and May 1.

Members were urged to bring books for service men to the last meeting of the board in April.

Sign Petition For Bus Line

Over 100 residents of the Charlemont District of Newton Highlands have signed a petition requesting that a bus line be established which would start from the corner of Walnut and Centre sts., Newton Highlands, and proceed along Centre st. to Winchester st., through Winchester st. to Nahant st., passing by the Working Boys' Home and the City Infirmary.

The petition, which was addressed to the Board of Aldermen, will be considered by the Franchise and License Committee and the matter will be taken up with the Middlesex and Boston Street Railway from whom the application for a bus permit would have to come.

It is expected that a public hearing will be held on the matter.

Golf Club Is Entered Sunday

The discovery was made Sunday afternoon that burglars had entered one building on the grounds of the Charles River Country Club, Newton Centre, and had made an attempt to enter another.

The unsuccessful attempt was made at the skeet shoot house. In the other building, the thief failed to obtain any loot.

A broken peanut vending machine was discovered yesterday in front of a store at 1247 Centre st., Newton Centre, by Patrolman Ambrose Doherty. He removed the money from the coin box for safekeeping.

represents jointly the Greater Boston Community Fund and the Boston Council of Social Agencies, serving as a contact group with Newton and other metropolitan communities. Mr. Montgomery succeeds Harold S. Fuller, chairman for the past two years, who has resigned because of the pressure of other duties.

In accepting his new responsibilities, Mr. Montgomery, who was presented at a luncheon meeting at the Boston Chamber of Commerce, stated the growth of the Greater Boston Community Fund has been one of the outstanding miracles in recent years.

"Equally important, although probably not so spectacular, has been the growth of social planning in the metropolitan area," he declared. "Today 46 cities and towns, constituting the Greater Boston area, are united in social planning and cooperative fund-raising to an extent never dreamed of 10 years ago."

Mr. Montgomery, who is a member of the Eastern firm of Bowler & Hall, has been active in the Community Fund for the past several years. He was formerly associated with Bird & Sons, Inc., of East Walpole. A member of the Advisory Draft Board, No. 106, he served as captain in the 303rd Field Artillery, A. E. F., in World War I. He is a graduate of Miami University of Ohio and Harvard Law School.

Attending from Newton were Frank B. Wing, director of the Boston Dispensary and the Boston Floating Hospital and Lyson A. Bruce, executive director of the Newton Community Chest.

Salem Rector Called Here

Trinity Episcopal Church, Newton Centre, has called Rev. Frederick Myers Morris, for seven years rector of Grace Church, Salem, to succeed Rev. Edward T. Sullivan, D.D., founder and only previous rector, whose resignation has been accepted pending the appointment of a successor.

Rev. Morris was born in Los Angeles in 1906 the son of Lewis Gouverneur Morris and Mary Myers Morris. He was graduated from Hobart College and studied for the ministry at the Virginia Theological School in Alexandria.

Ordained to the Episcopal diaconate in Philadelphia, he served as an assistant at St. Michael's mission in Ethete, Wyoming. He also served as assistant at Grace Church, Silver Springs, Md., before going to Salem in 1935. He was married to Dorothy Quincy Hastings in 1931. They have three children.

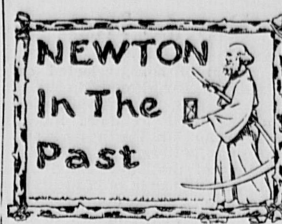

Dr. Sullivan has been rector of Trinity Church for over 50 years.

Finds Drain Already There

When the matter of an appropriation for the construction of a drain on Winter st., Newton Upper Falls, came up before the Newton Board of Aldermen at their last meeting, Alderman John Temperley stated that he was of the opinion that there already was a drain on Winter st. When informed that there is no official record of any drain having been built there, he voted in favor of the appropriation.

Mr. Temperley, however, made a personal investigation at the first opportunity and found that there is a drain on the North side of Winter st. through which water was flowing freely, while on the opposite side of the street city workers were at work on the new drain and had already laid concrete pipe along about one-third of the length of the street.

He immediately got in touch with officials at the City Hall and was given assurance that the project would be halted and a checkup made. Mr. Temperley believes that the drain had been built when Newton was a town and before complete records of such projects were kept. He based his opinion that there must be a drain on Winter st. on the fact that his own residence is on an elevation above that street and that according to the law of gravity the surface water must drain off somewhere.

The West End Land Company has been the chief topic of conversation among business men this week, and it appears that Newton is interested, as the plan of the company includes the extension of its line from Brighton to connect with the Cambridge railway.

After a good deal of discussion, the board of aldermen have adopted the order for electric lights, and the number of petitions received on Monday night proved that it will be a popular measure.

The legislative committee on towns did not take long to make up their minds in regard to the petition of the residents of Watertown, this side of the river, for annexation to Newton. They listened attentively to the evidence and the arguments of the learned counsel on both sides, and must have learned a good deal of ancient history, but as has been the case a dozen times before, the petitioners wasted their efforts.

The Wax Paper Company of Newton Upper Falls are to have a large addition to their factory, and business seems to be booming with them.

There are some important changes in the plans first proposed for elevating the B. & A. tracks through Newton, but most of them have arguments in their favor, and the doing away of grade crossings is such an important matter, that people will not object to any unimportant details. The great thing is to get rid of the grade crossings.

Members of the Newton Methodist Church and their friends, under the energetic leadership of the pastor, Rev. G. Charles Gray, concluded an aggressive campaign for the purpose of raising sufficient funds to pay off the debt which has been a burden for the past twenty years. Pledges to the amount of $30,000 have been received and it is hoped to bring the amount up to $10,000 within the next few days. This sum will cancel the debt, and allow many needed improvements to be made in the church building.

There are so many good features to the proposed new ordinance relative to the collection of ashes and waste that it ought to be passed, even tho it entails a heavy burden and considerable expense on the average householder. The necessity of a permit before any one can refuse thru the public street may appear onerous, but it is apparently the only sure method to prevent improper substances from being deposited on dumping places.

Local Men To Edit Paper

Two Newton men were elected editors of The Heights, Boston College student weekly, according to an announcement made last Thursday.

Ernest Santasuosso of Dorchester was selected editor-in-chief and among others were Francis Reade, Jr., of Waltham, managing editor, and Robert Galligan of Watertown feature editor.

CONSERVES YOUR CAR!

Get Regular Service According to Factory Standards to Make Sure Your Car Lasts as Long as It Should

THESE days it isn't enough to get service from someone who "knows automobiles."

You need the help of someone who knows your automobile, its special needs and requirements and how the factory meant it to be cared for.

For example: Maybe your Buick should have a new oil filter element about now. There are six definite steps to be followed if this is replaced by standard equipment filters. Five entirely different things must be watched if other equipment is used.

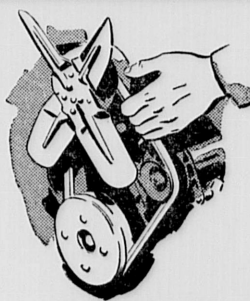

Our service Conserves Your Car

by knowing what to do and how to do it—and by doing it in time. Can you be sure of as much elsewhere?

Better not take chances. Attention by our authorized factory-trained mechanics costs no more than good work anywhere. Provided regularly, once a month or so, it helps prevent many troubles, and so saves annoyance, money, loss of efficiency and unnecessary wear.

We make no charge for a check-up on your car by authorized factory-trained mechanics. Drop in for one soon, and let us explain C-Y-C Service in detail.

Engine efficiency, and with it gas and oil mileage, calls for a cooling system that functions properly in all seasons and all parts. Just flushing the radiator is only part of the job.

D.A.R. Chapter In Regular Meeting

The regular meeting of the Lydia Partridge Whiting Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was held on March 24th, at the Newton Highlands Club Workshop. A large number of members and guests were served dessert at 1:30 p. m. by the committee. Mrs. Harold F. LaFayette, chairman, and Mrs. Will H. Chaplin, Mrs. Francis Riley, Mrs. Stephen A. Smith, Miss Marion B. Morse, Mrs. Walter F. Buck, Mrs. Charles R. Joy, Miss Edith McCann, Miss Cora S. Cobb, Mrs. Edward W. Egan, Mrs. Norman W. Davidson, was the hospitality committee.

After the usual opening exercises at 2 p. m. the Regent, Mrs. R. John Henderson, conducted the business meeting.

Mr. Jacobs presented a plan for the Omar Charity Circus to be held in Boston on April 23, 24 and 25 for the benefit of Hillside School in Marlboro. The sale of waste paper by Mr. Henderson has netted thus far $75.00 for the school from the Chapter and the good work is still going on.

A very successful Bridge Party was held at Ruane's Flower Shop on March 20th adding a substantial sum to the Philanthropic and Scholarship Funds.

Mrs. Albion H. Brown reported she has already collected 13,000 used stamps for the benefit of a Children's Hospital in England and will continue this work. She also asked for books for the Merchant Marine.

Several visiting Regents were introduced by Mrs. Henderson. Grace Warner Gulesian, Past Regent of the Hannah Aspinwall Chapter, D. A. R. of Brookline, spoke on the subject "The Advancement of American Music." She said that music is the greatest art of all and that the D. A. R. by its background, is rightfully the organization to encourage American music. She related many anecdotes in her musical career and told of how she came to write many of her compositions one of which was the music for "The House by the Side of the Road." She very graciously played several selections on the piano much to the delight of her audience.

Allan Booth, a young man of Newton Highlands, was presented and played a group of piano selections which were thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated by all.

Gov. Saltonstall Aids Junk Party

One of the strangest wartime parties in the country was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Coburn, 9 Old Orchard rd., Chestnut Hill, when 150 social and civic leaders brought tons of scrap, junk and old clothes in a "salvage for Victory" effort.

Guests brought at least 25 pounds of junk each and wore extra old clothes which were discarded at a "scrap tease" dance. Two Boston College football stars, John O'Malley and Al Morro, assisted the guests in donating contributions from their cars to the front lawn.

Proceeds from the sale of the articles will go to the U. S. O. Included in the collection were pots and pans, an old bath tub, a small cannon, rubber hose, her tires, flannel underwear and all sorts of clothes.

Governor Saltonstall, who was unable to attend, contributed an old rowing machine and a radio. The World War gun was brought by Francis R. Henderson of Winchester. Norman MacDonell, former director of the Massachusetts Federation of Taxpayers, arrived wearing three old hats and an old tire. Mayor Maurice J. Tobin of Boston and Mrs. Tobin came with a basket full of metal objects.

Mr. and Mrs. Coburn contributed a 40-year-old broom that was still serviceable, while Frank Sawyer, head of the Checker Taxi Company, sent an old cab.

The Coburn home is 297 years old, one of the oldest in Newton.

CHILDREN'S BOOKS

How many little boys know about the floating gardens of India? How many little girls love to string and wear beads? Do you know how they are made? Jo Bruce Chapin has written a delightful collection of stories of children of other lands in her new book, "The Silver Bird of the Andes," just published by Bruce Humphries.

Mrs. Chapin has written for the Christian Science Monitor and the Boston Globe. For a number of years she was prominent in Chicago society. When she returned to Boston she edited the Bulletin of the New England Women's Press Association, and directed the publicity for the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs. During the past two years she has conducted lectures, for children, on dogs.

Newton Residents Owning 16 mm Sound Projectors Asked to Sell to Government

An appeal to Newton residents who own 1939, 1940 and 1941 model sound projectors for the showing of 16 millimeter motion picture films to offer them for sale to the Federal government was issued by city officials at the request of the War Production Board.

These machines are essential for the rapid teaching of the armed forces and defense workers. It is believed that they are owned by many Newton residents.

Letters should be addressed to M. D. Moore, Electric Appliances and Consumers Durable Goods Branch, War Production Board, Washington, D. C.

The request that the machines be offered for sale to the Federal government was received Friday at the office of Mayor Paul M. Goddard.

Fined by Judge on Lottery Charge

Joseph Menelly, 51, of 2057 Commonwealth ave., Auburndale, made a grave error Tuesday when he accepted a number pool "play" from a stranger on Commonwealth ave., near Lake st., Newton.

The stranger turned out to be Lieut. Daniel E. Crowley of the Newton police and Menelly found himself under arrest on a charge of setting up and promoting a lottery.

In the Newton District Court today he pleaded not guilty to the charge, but was found guilty and fined $25 by Judge Donald E. Mayberry.

Lieut. Crowley and Sergeant Richard L. Bannon had Menelly under surveillance for several days. Crowley testified that he saw the defendant receiving slips of paper from various persons on Commonwealth ave. and Lake st. He said he also saw the man enter a store and telephone and when he came out he tore up some slips.

He said that Tuesday noon after watching the man's activities for a time, he approached him and handed him a slip with the number 165 written on it together with ten cents, stating that he wished to play the amount on the number.

Crowley said that when they searched the prisoner they found four slips containing 24 plays in his possession.

From time to time Mrs. Zarakov's menus also appear in the Boston Traveler, and she has agreed to release some of this Camp menus and recipes for publication in THE GRAPHIC in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Zarakov also conduct the Suburban Play Group in Newton which is located on the Angier estate in Waban.

Newton Man in Radio Address Asks for Recognition of Merchant Marine Vets

The part that the Merchant Marine played in the First World War and the role it is repeating in the present war was pointed out by George Walsh of 1 Gardner st., Newton, in an address over radio station WESX, Salem, Saturday night.

Walsh, commander of the World War Veterans of the American Merchant Marine, made a plea for recognition of Merchant Marine veterans by the government by granting them hospital and medical care and other concessions befitting the service which they performed. He spoke in part as follows:

"Very few American people realize that the necessary and all-important war task of moving and delivering essential cargoes is performed by the American Merchant Marine through its courageous officers and men who man the ships. Theirs is a responsibility that can never be relaxed despite enemy submarine activity, torpedoes, bombing planes or the frigid temperatures and gales of the north Atlantic, or the constant blistering sun rays along the equator in the Pacific, or seas of flaming oil. It is their share in the war-winning effort to keep the wharves, docks, terminals, warehouses, factory sidings and the storage places here at home empty of all essential war supplies and war equipment—and to keep these war essentials moving over the waterways—and to deliver them in places where they will do the most good for the armed forces. Now, as in 1917—the courageous American Merchant Marine seamen will serve until these dark hours of difficulty have passed."

Parents Pro Tem Service Opens

With many Newton parents finding their time engaged in numerous emergency activities the introduction of a new type of service known as "Parents Pro-Tem" comes as a welcome medium for providing for many family cares.

Parents Pro-Tem will furnish college girls, many of whom are trained in child psychology as applied to children of nursery, kindergarten and advanced school age to take care of and furnish companionship as "parents for the time."

The various services include regular activities of exercise, play and sports, special service in emergencies, amusing convalescents, meeting doctors and dentists appointments and shopping for or with the children. Tutoring is provided in all subjects if desired. Another type of service provides for the vacation periods with companionship on week-ends or longer trips, or of conducting groups to museums and points of interest, as well as supervising the family away from home while parents may be away. Still other services arrange and carry out children's parties.

Parents Pro-Tem also provides service for adults, furnishing companions for older persons for reading, shopping, exercise, travel or escort. For both children and adults the service is particularly timely in cases of slight illness or convalescence where a registered nurse is not required as many are trained in home nursing. They are prepared to attend to comfort, serve trays, and similar useful and necessary duties. Further information concerning Parents Pro-Tem may be obtained by phoning Longwood 5278.

Given Suspended 10-Day Sentence

A suspended sentence of 10 days in the House of Correction was imposed on William Armstrong, 22, of 63 Harvard st., Newtonville, last Thursday in the Newton District Court. Armstrong, who had been charged with the theft of a television picture camera and other loot from the home of Arthur Scheir of 111 Highland st., West Newton, pleaded guilty to the charge. He had, however, returned the stolen goods to the owner. Armstrong with two companions had gained admittance to the house when they called there the previous Tuesday and told the butler they were trying to locate the driver of a delivery truck from a local store. After they had left the theft was discovered and the butler got in touch at the store with the driver whom they sought, and young Armstrong who was in the store admitted the theft and agreed to return the stolen goods. He absolved his two companions from all blame as he said they were not aware he had stolen the articles until he showed them to them as they drove away from the house.

Postal Workers Desire More Pay

The National Association of Letter Carriers, in conjunction with affiliated postal organizations, is framing an amendment to the reclassification act of 1925 proposing a substantial increase in postal salaries. The Association states that "we believe that our cause is grounded in right, therefore we believe our appeal is undeniably meritorious. The last reclassification of postal employees' salaries was signed on February 28, 1925. The statement points out the fact that living costs have increased tremendously in the past sixteen years and that there is no deficit in postal receipts. Surpluses of fourteen and eighteen million dollars were reported in 1939 and 1940. In further argument the association contends that increased wage rates in industry have resulted whereas their case depends largely upon Congressional sentiment.
